Now, therefore, know ye, and all persons interested herein, are hereby cited and admonished in the name of the State of Louisiana, and of the Court of Probates in and for the parish of Jefferson, who can set up any right, title or claim in and to the property hereinafter described, in consequence of any irregularity in the appraisements and advertisements, in time, in manner of sale, or for any other defect whatsoever, to show cause within thirty days from the date of this mandamus or first insertion in the public papers of the sale made should not be confirmed and homologated.

The said property was sold by the Sheriff of the parish aforesaid, on the 25th of February, 1837, by virtue of a writ of fieri facias issued from the court on the 15th of February, 1837, in a suit entitled, Taylor and others, vs. Mrs. Maria Holliday, No. —— of the docket of this court, at which sale the said J. P. Benjamin became the purchaser thereof, for the sum of twenty one thousand nine hundred dollars, $21,900, payable one fourth in six months, and the balance, in one, two and three years credit, in approved endorsed notes, bearing mortgage until final payment.

Description of the property as given in the Judicial conveyance, viz:

Three lots of Ground, No. 4, No. 5, and No. 6, situated in this parish, about 8 miles above Carrollton, on the left bank of the river Mississippi, making a part of the plantation of Mrs. Maria Holliday, bounded according to a plan drawn by J. C. Naylor, Surveyor of the United States.

Now, therefore, know ye, and all persons interested herein, are hereby cited and admonished in the name of the State of Louisiana, and of the Court of Probates in and for the parish of Jefferson, who can set up any right, title or claim in and to the property hereinafter described, in consequence of any irregularity in the order, decree or judgment of the court under which the sale was made, or any irregularity or illegality in the appraisements and advertisements, in time, or manner of sale, or for any other defect whatsoever, to show cause within thirty days from the day this mandamus is first inserted in the public papers of the sale so made should not be confirmed and homologated.

The said property was sold by the Sheriff of the parish aforesaid, on the 25th of February, 1837, by virtue of a writ of fieri facias issued from the court on the 15th of February, 1837, in a suit entitled Taylor and others, vs. Mrs. Maria Holliday, (No. —— of the docket of this court,) at which sale the said J. P. Benjamin became the purchaser thereof, for the price and sum of twenty three thousand eight hundred dollars, $23,800, payable, one-fourth in six months, and the balance, in one, two and three years credit, in approved endorsed notes, bearing mortgage until final payment.

Description of the property, as given in the Judicial conveyance, viz:

One lot of ground, together with the rights and privileges thereunto belonging, situate in the parish of Jefferson, about eight miles above Carrollton, on the left bank of the Mississippi, fronting on the river Mississippi, of Mrs. Maria Holliday, bounded according to a plan drawn by J. C. Naylor, Surveyor of the United States, measuring one arpent in front on the river Mississippi, and running back to the lake, between parallel lines.

Witness my hand and the seal of the said court, this twenty second day of April, 1837.
