SEMINARY FOR THE TWO SEXES, IN BARRATT STREET, (between St. Anne and Dauphine streets.

MR. GARREAUX INSTITUTION, which has been a continuous only since the 15th July, already possesses more than thirty pupils. Nothing has been neglected to ensure to the pupils an education as complete as can be had in this retired.

The classes are directed by the following professors:

Mr Garreaux, Director of the Superior Classes in French, History, Geography, &c.

Mr. Beaussier, ex-professor of the Normal School of Paris, superintendent mathematics and drawing

Mr De Vaux—one, for the intermediate French classes.

Mr Dumoulin, for the elementary classes.

An English professor of established merit, gives lessons twice a day in that language.

The young ladies placed under the immediate superintendence of Mdme Garreaux, are separated entirely from the other sex. Every branch of instruction necessary for a young lady is imparted to them with the utmost care and zeal.

Instruction in Music is attended to by a teacher well known in New Orleans for many years. 15

AT THE FINE GREEN OAKS OF BILOXI.

NOTICE TO PARENTS DESIRIOUS OF PASSING THE SUMMER IN THE COUNTRY.

The country house of Mdme. PRADAT has been opened to the public since the first of June inst.

The splendid establishment which is maintained at great cost and with exercise care, offers every source of amusement which the family sought for elsewhere. Cool apartments, charming gardens, a variety of games, abundant fishing, delicious promenades, a choice table and faithful and attentive servants.

A bar, copiously supplied with the choicest wines and liquors, has been established on the grounds, and an excellent billiard room has been added to the various pastimes which are proffered to guests.

For the convenience of travelers, Madame Pradat has had built opposite her residence a wharf which enables steamboats to land passengers at all hours.

Mdme Pradat flatters herself that her constant efforts to please the public will ensure her a continuance of the patronage heretofore extended to her.
