MAYORALTY OF NEW ORLEANS—COUNCIL OF MUNICIPALITY NO. 1.

SITTING OF MONDAY, 20th July, 1840.

THE Council of Municipality No. 1, ordain as follows:

1. From and after the promulgation of this ordinance no pedlar or hawker of goods, merchandise, jewelry, boots, shoes, hats, soaps, hardware, cutlery, groceries, ready made clothes, stationary, &c. shall be permitted to station in any public place, street, levee or side walk, within this municipality, under a penalty for each offence of three days imprisonment and a fine of ten dollars; and moreover for the faithful performance of this ordinance the commissioner of the market and vegetable markets are hereby held personally responsible, and shall be fined $25 for the first and second offence, and afterwards dismissed from office by the Mayor if they neglect their duty. The commissary of the meat market is obliged to inspect from St. Ann to St. Phillip streets, and the commissary for the vegetable market, from St. Philippe to Ursuline streets. The residue of the municipality devolves upon the immediate inspection of the commissaries of the different wards or districts under the same conditions and penalties.

2. All keepers of taverns, coffee-houses, grog shops, and all others who rent to or permit pedlars to station in front of their premises, shall pay a fine of $20 for the first offence, and if repeated, their license shall be taken from them.

3. During the summer months, when oysters are not sold, the occupants of the levee are prohibited from selling or permitted to sell any spirituous liquor, under the penalty of $25 for every offence. They are also not permitted to sell other fish than oysters at the same period.

4. The owner or owners of the ferry shall have a strong fence or enclosure made, with one small and one large gate in front of the landing, of thirty feet in length, and the fence extending on each side to the river—the gates to be shut and locked after the running of the boat shall have ceased—The interior of this enclosure shall always be kept clean under the penalty of $10 for each and every offence.

5. The stands or pavillions used for the sale of ice cream, lemonade, &c. shall be removed from the Levee, and permission granted, if asked, to sold occupants, to erect three small pavilions for that purpose under the trees of the public square, in front of the church, for which they will pay $10 per month to this municipality, during the summer months.

6. From and after this date, no other stalls outside of the market shall be permitted to remain in the market after 10 hours, say till ten o'clock, a. m.; but these last built bacon, ham, pork, flour, corn, meal, fruit, rice, peas, beans, grain, potatoes, onions, and other vegetables, shall be allowed to remain in the vegetable market shall be kept free of market pedlars; and after mark 4 hours the whole of the outside of the market, and the square in front of the market, and the streets, shall be swept daily and kept clean: the two commissaries are obligated to have this done under a penalty of $10 for each neglect.

7. The present resolutions shall be printed in French and English and published in several newspapers, and one hundred handbills shall be printed, and the Mayor requested to have the same stuck up in the most public places of this municipality, and every other public place, so that all persons interested may not pretend ignorance of shall prevarication.

(Signed) WM. FRERET, Mayor.
Approved, July 14, 1840. S. W. WATERS, Secretary.
