ARRIVAL OF THE CALEDONIA.
LATE AND IMPORTANT FROM EUROPE.

We hasten to lay before our readers in an extra edition, the intelligence received by the arrival at Boston of the steamship CALEDONIA, after a stormy passage of 14 days and 14 days. It affords us much gratification to be enabled to state that the commercial advices by this arrival are of a more favorable character than had been generally anticipated. After the great excitement consequent upon the Chinese news, it was universally believed that the reaction would be serious and prices would decline materially. Such, however, has not been the case, and the cotton market at the latest dates, after having declined in the early part of the month about half per lb, had in a measure recovered from the depression and regained within 1-4d of the rates current at the departure of the previous steamer.

The political news by this arrival is entirely unimportant.

From the Evening edition of the Journal of Commerce of the 20th ult.

NINETEEN DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

The Royal Mail steamship Caledonia, capt. Lott, arrived at Boston on Wednesday morning a little before 7 o'clock, after a passage of 20 days and 12 hours, having been retarded by head winds and heavy seas.

The Caledonia brought 36 passengers from Liverpool and several from Halifax.

The letters from Boston vary in their statements of the amount of specie brought by the steamer. The lowest sum stated is half a million, and the highest a million. This specie, which most of it belongs here, will probably square up the balance that have for some weeks been in favor of the Literary Emporium.

Among the sales of stocks in London were £50,000 Massachusetts 5's at 99 a 99. They were of the parcel sold in Boston some time ago at 98.10 and so leaving to the operation a profit of some 2 per cent. John Bull does not lose all his good nature.

The character of the news is decidedly favorable in all commercial respects.

At the last dates, the truth about the Great Western was, that she would start for New York on the 15th Feb., and had already a good number of passengers engaged.

The Acadia, capt Ryrie, arrived at Liverpool on the 16th ult, and the Columbia, capt Miller, on the 20th.

The overland mail from India had not reached London on the evening of the 31 inst.

Several smart shocks of an earthquake had been felt in the southern part of Wales and in Cornwall.

The accouchement of the Queen, which is again imminent, will not take place, it is expected, before May.

The wheat crop is coming up beautifully every where.

ORDERS No. 11.
HEAD QUARTERS, First Brigade, L. M.
New Orleans 6th February, 1843.

The month of February is fixed by law for the enrollment of the Militia.

The Colonels commanding the 6th, 43d, 46th and 48th Regiments will see that the requirements of the law are complied with by the company officers of their respective Regiments.

Until the election of field officers for the 43d, 47th, and 48th Regiments, the duty of superintending the enrollment will be assigned to the following named officers:

Col. Coffey, of the 42d Regiment, will detail Major Tuogood to take charge of the 43d Regiment.

Col. Cole, of the 4th Regiment, will detail Lieut. Col. Jarvis to take charge of the 47th Regiment.

Col. Dunn, of the 46th Regiment, will detail Major Thompson to take charge of the 48th Regiment.

Section 61 of the Militia Law "Be it further enacted, &c. That every person subject to militia duty is bound to have himself enrolled, and is not entitled to receive any notice of enrollment; and every person subject to militia duty who shall neglect to report himself to the commanding officer of his company, or to the first sergeant thereof, within twenty days after he becomes liable to do duty in said company, shall be liable to a fine of five dollars, to be collected as other company fines as hereinafter provided.

"§ 62. Be it further enacted, &c., That the Captain shall with Sergeants, by notice posted up at least at one of the most public places in the bounds of his company, the place and hour at which he and the orderly sergeant will attend to receive the names of those who present themselves to be enrolled, and he may employ a person to receive those names in place of himself or the Orderly Sergeant. At the end of the month, he may send the Orderly Sergeant or a person authorized in his place, to find the names of those who have neglected to enroll themselves and shall add them to the roll, and if any person shall refuse to give his name or the name of any person in his or her employ, or shall give a false name, or be absent or shall conceal himself, or shall give incorrectly to the person authorized to demand it, such person shall be subject to a fine of ten dollars to be recovered before any Associate Judge of the Justices of Peace having jurisdiction, by any officer of the militia, and no excuse for such default shall be received or allowed.

By order of Brigadier General Honoree Davis.
