OFFICIAL ORDER.

Headquarters Department of the Gulf,
New Orleans, Feb. 3, 1864.

General Orders No. 24.

The following general regulations are published for the information and government of all concerned in the sale and transfer of cotton held in Louisiana under authority of the Department, now and in contemplation of the system established January 31, 1863.

I. The enlistment of soldiers from Louisiana under authority of the Department will hereafter be suspended by order of the commanding officer, and will not be resumed except upon the order of Lieutenant-General Smith.

II. The Provost Marshal General is authorized to proceed to the distribution of Parishes into posse and selected districts as he may deem most convenient, and shall be authorized to detail such soldiers as may be necessary for the purpose.

III. Provision will be made by the Provost Marshal of a selected number of soldiers, on a certain fee, for the guidance and protection of the cotton, under the direction of the Provost Marshal General, and shall be authorized to employ such number of colored men, under fifteen years of age, which, when established, will be fixed by the Commanding Officer of the Department of the Gulf.

IV. Soldiers will not be allowed to leave their stations in the Department without the commanding officer of the Regiment or Provost Marshal, who may be authorized and empowered with great discretion to detail, discharge, or let go any soldier.

V. Provisions made in the [illegible] shall be passed from one place to another, except on the same conditions as may be established by the Provost Marshal of the Department.

VI. Planters and others on [illegible] plantations are hereby notified that [illegible] shall be [illegible] to the Provost Marshal of the Parish, in [illegible] the Provost Marshal of the Department, [illegible] and [illegible] the [illegible] and [illegible] and [illegible] and
