

Home"" """"> ar.cn.de.en.es.fr.id.it.ph.po.ru.sw

Back Cover

DFID's headquarters are located at:

DFID
94 Victoria Street
London SW1E 5JL
UK

and at

DFID
Abercrombie House
Eaglesham Road

East Kilbride
Glasgow G75 8EA
UK

Website: www.dfid.gov.uk
email: enquiry@dfid.gov.uk
Public enquiry point: 0845 3004100
From overseas: +44 1355 84 3132

01/01 8K Produced for DFID Information Department
by Stairway Communications ISBN 1 86192 327 9

Home "" """"> ar.cn.de.en.es.fr.id.it.ph.po.ru.sw

The Challenge of Universal Primary Education -

Strategies for Achieving the International Development Targets, 2001, 49 p.

Department for International Development

Foreword by the Secretary of State

Executive summary

1. Target statement

Introduction

What are the targets?

Why are the targets important?

Are the targets achievable?

How will progress be measured?

2. Defining the challenge

Achieving the targets: the scale and geography of the challenge

Barriers to UPE and gender equality

3. Experience to date

What have we learned?

International commitments pay off

4. Meeting the challenge

Strategies to achieve the education targets

Priorities for governments and civil society

Priorities for the international community

5. Priorities for DFID

Promoting international commitment and action

Well-targeted country programmes

Knowledge and research strategies
Ways of working

6. Monitoring progress

Assessing performance
Developing capacity
Learning lessons

Annexes

Annex 1 - Statistical tables: Education State of the World's Children 2000: UNICEF

Annex 2 - Global and regional indicators of development progress for the international development targets

Back Cover