

On-site assistance for new AS/400 AFP sites

AS/400 AFP JUMPSTART

Highlights

Provides formal AFP AS/400 skills transfer at your site

Includes unique application development assistance

Complements other IBM ServicePAC offerings

IBM Printing Systems, Application Solutions Group, is proud to offer AS/400* AFP* Jumpstart. If you wish to enable Advanced Function Printing* in an AS/400 environment but require some implementation assistance, the AS/400 AFP Jumpstart offering is for you. AS/400 AFP Jumpstart provides the flexibility to offer just the right amount of on-site assistance and skills transfer.

AS/400 AFP Jumpstart is specifically beneficial to Application System/400* (AS/400) clients who need to integrate electronic forms, signatures, and bar codes into applications. Jumpstart is designed to complement our existing PrePAC, FormPAC, and ScanPAC offerings. The AS/400 AFP Jumpstart offers quality on-site AFP assistance and implementation skills transfer packaged to meet your unique requirements.

Benefits

We have experience implementing AFP on the AS/400 from a myriad of client environments and industries. Let us assist you!

AS/400 AFP Jumpstart:

- Lends itself to a combination of formal skills transfer and unique application development assistance.
- Your people remain available, with no need to travel for additional education. Skills transfer may be achieved in your own location.
- The output from FormPAC Plus may be used as part of an on-site lab, complementing IBM's existing PAC offerings.

Flexibility to meet your needs

Depending upon the length of the session you choose, we can provide as much in-depth assistance and skills transfer as your business requirements dictate. Additional custom services are available for an additional fee. We want to assist you in achieving your business objectives

Pricing Information

Prices for AS/400 AFP Jumpstart are determined by the class duration you select, and have been provided here for planning purposes. The Application Solutions Group reserves the right to change pricing without notice. Assistance is limited to up to ten (10) students.

Summary

Together, the various AS/400 AFP Jumpstart options are designed to provide these key features and benefits:

- Three session durations to meet your unique requirements
- Incorporate the output of existing PAC offerings as part of on-site labs
- Streamline options to simplify the decision-making process
- Provide on-site skills transfer
- Provide pricing alternatives which include travel expenses
- Realize the benefits of Advanced Function Printing in your environment
