Smarter technology for a smarter planet:

IBM Enterprise Advance

IBM® Enterprise Advance is a series of short yet effective sessions on techniques for optimising enterprise architecture. Over lunch, you'll hear from industry experts on how your System z® can be leveraged for strategic initiatives to improve efficiency and reduce costs across your organisation.

Our first session 'Advancing business intelligence' is coming to venues in Sydney, Canberra and Melbourne soon. This session will focus on how using the System z platform for data warehousing and business intelligence can improve business insight and facilitate smarter decision making.
