E06   Enterprise Computing Platform Update
   Joe Kreitz

IMS has combined with the evolving architecture of System/360, S/370 and S/390 over several years, to meet the ever more stringent demands placed upon enterprise servers, and the mission-critical data and applications residing on them. This session provides a high level summary of the most recent enhancements to IBM enterprise server offerings.

No Presentation Available