E53 IMS V7 High Availability/Large Database Support
Vern Watts

This presentation provides an overview of the High Availability Large Database (HALDB) feature of IMS/ESA V7R1. It includes details on the implementation, operational features and utilities. The elimination of the need for Prefix Resolution and Prefix Update utilities is explained and the impacts on definition, operations, migration and fallback are covered. This topic also covers the effects on application programs.