

Kipoi Tonny Nsubuga (born 26 June 1978) is the Member of 9th Parliament of Uganda, elected by the majority voters with over 72% in Bubulo west Constituency Manafwa District following his NRM party's victory in the general election 18th February 2011.

Kipoi Tonny is the Member of Parliament under the National Resistance Movement (NRM), the governing political party, and he serves in the committee of defense and Internal affair, Committee on Commissions, Statutory Authorities and State Enterprises (COSASE) , Kipoi is also referred to by his initials TK and his clan name Kipoi. Kipoi was inaugurated as the MP of Bubulo West on 17 May 2011 after defeating incumbent Bukeni kyabi Fred and Watsusi washeba Sylvester former minister of Works,Transport and communication and 9 others at the NRM primaries. Kipoi is also a founder of the Coalition of Market Venders of Uganda (COMAVU) the body which advocats for the right of the under privileged Traders in Uganda, briefly Kipoi runs a Multi media company in South africa, Botswana and Netherland. From May 2006 to 2009 he switched into community based activities back home, where his main objectives was to focus on Health, education, and Orphans in skill developments in order to be self reliance.

Kipoi is the first youngest direct member of parliament to be elected at the age of 32 in Bubulo west Manafwa district. He has faced significant political legal challenges.

Early years

Kipoi was born in Bunefule – Bugobero subcounty. His father was a policeman who died when Kipoi was still a young boy, and his mother a domestic worker. As a child, he was constantly moving between Mbale-Nairobi & Kampala in the central region of Buganda kingdom. He has three brothers, Michael, Robert and Joseph.