shment which shall follow upon interfering with the General-in-Chief in his administration of these Staves and districts, Mr. Bingham has the effrontery to assert that the General-in-Chief may, under that section, be tried and pronished, if found guilty of any "neglect or refusal to execute the provisions of the law, or if in the execution he shall act in an oppressive and oreed mahner."

How the General-in-Chief can possibly be held responsible for interfering with orders which are henced by himself and which of course can be revoked by himself and which of course can be revoked by himself at any moment, is past our comprehension. The very object of the law is to give him discretionary and distatorial power if he did not already would shall from the person of Haywood Shaw colored, while he was in convolt would distatorial power if he did not already would shaw of the triefle from Samtel before the First District Court. To work the first District Court of trial, under bonds of $5.00. So was will as Experience with kins for which punishment is provided, and it is obvious that were he unable to revoke or modify his orders to the District Commanders, his office would be a very singal-rone indeed. Under the Recombreaction Acts he is entrusted with legislative as well as Executive powers and must necessarily have the right to repeal the laws he may conset.

But the general for the army. It is interfered with the provided and it is obvious, was held to revoke or modify his orders to the District Commanders, his office with for the first District Court. OITY INTELLIGENCE.

Reporterial Mixellany.—Professor Alexander Dimitry, Chairman of the Department of Education of the Kormal Schools, lately organded, will deliver a lecture (introductory) before the Normal School teachers, and scholars and the public generally, to day at noon, at the Boy's High School on Burgundy street, between Bienville and Castombones streets. Sobject: "Digaily of the Teachership." We know of no one more capable of illustrating an intersting and important a theme than Prof. Dimitry. The St. Andrews. Society oclebrated the Burns' Anniversary last night, and as might be expected, the occasion was highly interesting; and the ocrements of a very entertaining character. We shall speak of the events of the sevening more fully in another issue.
