EDUCATION.

FOUNDED 1854.....INCORPORATED 1855

NEW ORLEANS Female Collegiate Institute,

OR

BOARDING AND DAY SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LADIES,

Under the Superintendence of Madame ED. LOCQUET,

No. 209 Camp Street,

CORNER OF JULIA AND ST. JOSEPH STREETS.

THIS establishment, founded by Dr. and Mrs. Mc-CARTEE, is now largely [illegible] patronized, and will continue to be conducted with the same [illegible] as heretofore.

The Boarding Department, enlarged by her sister, Mme. LOUISE LOCQUET, will offer her best endeavors to [illegible] the comfort and confidence reposed, for so many years, in her predecessors.

The Professors of the highest talent are employed to fill the several chairs, both solid and ornamental. Piano, Harp and the study of the Solfege, will be taught exclusively by the Mmes. Locquet, whose reputation as professors of music has been so well appreciated by the numerous parents who have so favored them with their confidence.

The French language, the native tongue of those ladies, is a sine qua non requirement of which is now indispensable in a good education, if taught with the utmost care, and is a special feature in the Institution. Young ladies will therefore find in their constant intercourse with these teachers every facility possible for perfecting themselves in this language.

The establishment, always so commodious and well ventilated, has recently been completely renovated, with the utmost regard to the comfort and health of the pupils.

Mme. Locquet respectfully invites parents and friends to call and visit the premises, where prospectuses with all other information which may be desired, can be obtained.

Letters of inquiry will be promptly attended to by the Principal. / apply
