This extraordinary conversation was held under peculiar circumstances which can't be ataked, but I have given almost the exact world should be the chancellor. The military sites by the Chancellor, were critical. The military is at Countring is very critical. The Basic grant of the Duke of Meckleuberg's army is enterented at camp Coole, 15 miles northwest of Le Mans. Another portion of the Duke of Meckleuburg's army in cortened at camp Coole, 15 miles northwest of Le Mans. Another portion of the Duke of Meckleuburg's army moving from Dreux to Chartres, had reached Maners, on the north bank of the Seinerre, 20 miles northeast of Coolie. The Germans from Tammetere, 55,000 strong, under Vonderfann, yesterday, in advancing towards l'ithiestoires, fell along the line of D'Aurelles' entrenched positions at Arthenais and Bois Cramien, when a serious engagement followed, but the result has not been ascertained. An extract from Gen. Sherman's report says:

In the examination of the reports, herewith enclosed, I invite your attention to that recommendation of Gen. Halleck which refers to the use of troops assisting the civil authorities in maintaining peace, collecting the revenues, etc., which has become so common of late. The duties of the soldiery in this connection are not prescribed so clearly by statute that the officers can understand their rights and duties; and the civil sgents and authorities often select more than can be right. By the content of the soldiery in this connection are not prescribed so clearly by statute that the officers countries of the select the select of the soldiers of the select to the select of the select to make individual arrests, or to do any set of violence, except in their organized capacity as a poser-considus duly summoned thy the United States Marshal, and acting in his personal presence. Yet if it is deemed lawful and proper that the soldiers should do more than this. I roncer with Gen. Halleck that Congress should so enact in clear and distinct terms.

An order was basted by the War Department so-day restoring some seventy officers, most of them on their own application, having served theirty veines, or incurred in their-line of duty. They are to receive seventy-live per cent. of full pay for life.

Among those retired are the following field officers: Cois. Blake, Graham, Girer. Shepherd, Ketchum, Lovell and Spraue: Lieut. Cols. Hull, Hoskins, Gibson Salell, Wallace, Hanka, Kiddo and Maloney, Majors Hudson, Williams, Hardin and Runkle.
