OHIO LOAFERS TO BE

By International News Service.

Columbus, July 6.-The vagrant for a "hand-out" soon will be only a memory in Ohio. Tramps, "panhandlers" and other loafers are to be corrated, put in labor colonies and made to become self-supporting at least. The plan is a war-efficiency measure.

Details are being worked out by Governor Cox and the Ohio branch of the Council of National Defense. The camps will supplement workhouses, the latter not possessing sufficient facilities to take care of the "won't-works." Police marshals | club wielding. and sheriffs will be hot on the trail of these parasites of society who, on conviction, will be put under guard and forced to labor for the duration of the war.
