WRITING.

MR. DOLBEAR, has the pleasure to inform the citizens of New Orleans, that his brother has just arrived from their northern writing establishment. They are, now, therefore, prepared to give lessons in the various practical and ornamental hands at their writing establishment No. 48 Canal street, over Miss Carroll's Book Store; where Ladies and Gentlemen are respectfully invited to call and examine numerous specimens of the rapid improvement of persons from eight to upwards of fifty years of age

A separate apartment for Ladies. Private lessons given if desired. Diplomas, family registers, cards, titles, &c &c. executed with elegance. Rooms open from 8 A. M. to 10 P. M.

CERTIFICATES.

From his Excellency Governor Roman.

I have examined, with attention, the system of writing taught by Mr. Dolbear, and it is with pleasure that I can certify to its superiority over any other method, with which I am acquainted. Mr. Dolbear having given private lessons in my family, I consider it but justice to add, that I believe him as much worthy of public patronage on account of the correctness and mildness of his character, as deserving the correctness and mildness of those who received his lessons.

New Orleans, July 24, 1832. A. B. ROMAN.

On the invitation of Mr. Dolbear, a Teacher of Penmanship, in our city, upon the Carstairian system, we have carefully examined specimens of the writings of his pupils, whose ages range from 5 to 50 years, written through an entire course of instruction; and after having done so, it is with the highest satisfaction, that we can testify to their rapid if not unparalleled, progress which they have made.

From the specimens seen, and the examination of the system made, we cannot withhold the expression of a confident opinion, that the system is greatly superior to any hitherto taught. If to write legibly, elegantly, rapidly, and in good taste, be an accomplishment, useful or desirable, it is upon the principles of this system that it is to be acquired. We therefore anxiously solicit of the public a liberal patronage in favor of an Instructor, whose qualifications are of the highest order, and whose labors promise to be so unexceptionably useful to this and other communities.

A. B. Roman, Governor of the State of Louisiana; D. Prieur, Mayor of the City of New Orleans; Rev. C. Maenhaut; Rev. O. L. Nash; A. Grailho, Esq; Rev. G. Winslow; J. W. Egnew, Esq; Wm C. Pope, Esq; D. Morphey, Esq; L. Bringier, Surveyor General.

From an examination of the system, according to which Mr. Dolbear instructs and from personal observation of the proficiency of many of his pupils, I feel the utmost confidence in recommending him as the ablest teacher of the art of penmanship, with whom I have ever met. His departure, also, is that of a gentleman.

FRESH GARDEN SEEDS

NOW LANDING, AND FOR SALE AT

WM. SMITH'S

Garden Seed Store, No. 83 Custom-House street.

The subscriber begs leave to inform his friends and the public, that he is now landing from the packet ship Natchez, a renewed supply of fresh SPRING GARDEN SEEDS, received direct from the growers and warranted equal as to freshness and quality, with any imported into New Orleans, either from the Northern or Western states.

Country merchants and dealers will find it more to their advantage to obtain their supplies for retailing from the establishment than from other in the city, as from the subscriber's long residence and practical knowledge of the Seed business, he is better prepared to fill an extensive order, (whether wholesale or retail,) for any of the standard kind of KITCHEN GARDEN SEEDS, than any similar establishment south of the Atlantic cities, not even excepting any of the Shaker's societies. Dealers can always, during the Fall and Spring seasons, on a short notice, obtain an almost unlimited supply of Garden Seeds either by the single dozen papers, or gross, neatly and uniformly put up with printed labels in French & English.

The subscriber begs to return his warmest acknowledgements for the public patronage with which he has been favored since his first establishment in 1822, and hopes by personal assiduity, to merit a continuance thereof, in his new store, No. 83, Custom house street, where he will be permanently located. Seed Store, 83 Custom house street.
