NEW ORLEANS BEE

J. MAGNE & WELSH, PROPRIETORS. NO. 81 CHARLES STREET.

Official Journal of the State.

FRIDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 20, 1844

REPORT OF THE SECRETARY OF WAR. The document is extremely long, and copious in its details. We must content ourselves for the present with a summary of its leading statements.

FROM TEXAS.

The U. S. Cotton Bazaar, which arrived yesterday, brought later advice from Texas. The paper contains President Houston's Message. Some of the remarks made by the President upon the subject of Annapolis are regarded as having "a veiled opinion towards opposition to that project."

CHARITY INTELLIGENCE.

ST. CHARLES THEATRE.—This evening new play from the pen of ERIC SMITH, Esq., called the "Hesperus," will be performed for the first time in New Orleans. The subject of the play is the system, which maintained in England, of the "Trade of the Slave."

ORLEANS HIGH SCHOOL.

LUCKE DOORLEANS. The Session 1844 closed. After the reading of orations, English, French, Latin, and Greek, the prizes were distributed by the principal, assisted by the faculty. The following is a list of the prizes and names of the scholars.

VILLERS' LYCEUM.

For the Session of 1844. The prizes were distributed by the principal, assisted by the faculty. The following is a list of the prizes and names of the scholars.

SALES AT AUCTION.

WILLIAM B. RAYMOND, Auctioneer. Will be sold at auction on Friday, the 21st inst., at 10 o'clock, a lot of land in the parish of St. Charles, containing 100 acres more or less.
