THE DAILY BEE,
O. F. WHEELER & CO.,
O. F. WHEELER, A. BARRET,
W. BUTTERSON, W. DUFOUR.
DAILY PAPER, (one year in advance) ... $10,00
COUNTRY PAPER, semi-weekly, (one year in advance) ... $ 5,00
Subscribers must give the name of the Post Office to which they desire their paper directed.
Advertising before any matter is allowed to appear.

The New Orleans Bee.

OFFICE, 83 CHARTRES ST. NEW ORLEANS, SATURDAY MORNING, APRIL 25, 1857. VOL. XVII—NEW SERIES, VOL. XXX—WHOLE NO 10[illegible]

THE DAILY BEE.

SATURDAY MORNING, APRIL 25.

The Northern Mail failed yesterday from Charleston.

WAXING WEAK.

The Northern Freesoil journals are deeply aggrieved at the insignificant amount of pecuniary capital furnished to the cause by the decision of the Supreme Court in the Dred Scott case. They were so furious and truculent in their denunciations, and so prodigal of menaces and insult to the South, that they certainly thought the entire North would rally to the extreme depths, and slaughter seven eighths of the Democrats and Americans, or would incontinently surrender principles they had previously cherished as fundamental and body, with the fanatics of Abolition. Events thus far have by no means realized our fears. It is quite certain, gauging the measure of popular sentiment by the only true and just index—pecuniary contributions, the Freesoilers are losing ground. They began to lose confidence from the day succeeding the Presidential election, and even with every such effort, and the factitious excitement created by the organs of Freesoilism, have not been able to hold their own, or increase their strength. The recent State election which took place in New Hampshire, prior to the decision of Judge Taney. The Freesoilers succeeded by a reduced majority. The next was in Connecticut after that decision, and in the midst of the howlings of the Abolitionists. All of these elections triumphantly in advance over the previous overwhelming Abolition majorities. Yet the result showed the success of the State ticket by a majority of not as much as one third as they had thousands last year, with an absolute loss of two members of Congress—two Democrats being substituted for two Black Republicans. This certainly does not look as if Dred Scott was a very available Abolition ticket.

Certain of these Abolition leaders manufacture the character of the people with which they have to deal. There are very many Northern citizens who agree absolutely with the principles enunciated by the Black Republicans, but have no idea whatever of arraying themselves in open opposition to the highest judicial authority of the Constitution. The Dred Scott decision finds them pause. They find they are not prepared a position of obedience to the extreme depths, and imagined that seven eighths of the Democrats and Americans