AGENCY AT WASHINGTON CITY.

FRANCIS A. DICKENS, of the City of Washington, having opened an Agency at Washington for several years in the Treasury and War Departments, tenders his services to the Agency of Claims before Congress, and other branches of the Government, in settling Commissioners' accounts, and the various public claims. He will attend to all professional claims—such as procuring patents—preparing all papers for Congressional action—the prosecuting of claims for horses lost in the service of the United States—preparing drafts of bills—memorials and petitions—preparing all papers for Land Claims—as well those granted by the State of Virginia as the United States. All Claims accruing under Contracts with the Government, or Departments, settled in consequence of the actions or neglect of the Government, and notice of any business before Congress or the Public Offices which may require the agency or attorney. His charges will be moderate, and depending upon the amount of the claim and the extent of the services.

Mr. DICKENS is known to most of those who have been in Congress within the last few years, or who have occasion at any time to visit Washington. All letters must be post paid.

A BEAUTIFUL HEAD OF HAIR is the greatest ornament belonging to the human frame. How instantly the loss of it changes the countenance and mentality by bringing on the appearance of old age, which often causes many to regret it too late. Scurfy, and sometimes even to shun society—as if the loss of property was the greatest misfortune; therefore in the present case, we would recommend to those who are thus afflicted, to make use of the Balsam of Columbia discovered by

ROBERT WHARTON, Chemist,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Who has for many years been engaged in the study of this disease, has certified, as does the subscribers, to the truth of the following statement:

This is to certify that I have used the Balsam of Columbia discovered by Robert Wharton, Philadelphia, and have found it highly serviceable in restoring the hair to its natural color, and preventing it from falling off. I have also used it in my family with the same success, and can recommend it to the public as a valuable article.

Witness my hand and seal this 1st day of September, 1837.

JOHN P. INGLIS, Mayor of Philadelphia.

Sold by the following agents:

John P. Inglis, 230 Market st, Philadelphia.
