IMPORTANT TO EUROPEAN TRAVELLERS .- A IMPORTANT TO EUROPEAN TRAVELLERS.—A Berlin letter in the London Times, says:

It may be useful to apprise all persons leaving England for Austria, that that power, following the example of Russia, has closed her frontiers, and it is only with the greatest difficulty that a vise for a passport to Vienna can be obtained of the Austrape embassy here (in Berlin.) All consular passports are rejected, and an especial rigor is exercised towards Englishmen and Americans. To increantile men the inconvenience of being detained in Berlin is very great, and with the certainty of being stopped at the frontier, it is useless to prooked. It is necessary, therefore, to take an ambassador's or foreign officer's passport, and that must state distinctly the place to which the traveler is going.
