Read the following summary of the opinions of the principal Van Buren men, and say whether the policy of the party is not to reduce the wages of lebor:

"There can never be prosperous times in this exuntry, until a poor man, as in England, is obliged to work for a sheep's head and plack a day, and the under a cart at night."—Smater Newbury, a New England Federalia.

"The price of labor is entirely too high. The laborer in this counstry can afford to work for eleven-pence a day, and the hard money system will bring down wages to that sum—wheat will also come down to 16 centes a bushel, and every thing sies in proportion. This is the best tariff you can have, and the only one that can enable the manufacturer to compute with England. The sub-treasury will effect both objects—it will put down the banks, and bring wages and everything else down."—B. Tappan, loco-foce U. S.
