PANORAMA EXHIBITION.
THE great Panoramic picture of the City of Paris, the Capital of the Kingdom of France, is now exhibiting in the building on the public square of Rampart street.

The view is taken from the roof of the south end of the palace of the Tuileries; the spectator must therefore imagine himself placed on this elevated situation which commands an extensive prospect over the whole city. Immediately under the eye of the spectator in a northern direction, is the roof of the King's apartments, and on the right that of the long picture gallery stretching eastward as far as the Louvre. This gallery bounds the place de Carrousel on the south side and the new gallery on the north, in the centre of this square is seen the triumphal arch. On this square Bonaparte was wont to review his battalions previous to their departure for their respective destinations, and here oft the walls resounded with the clang of martial music. On the west side of the palace the spectator looks down on the Garden of the Tuileries, and beyond that in the distance is seen the palace of the Garde de Meubles, and the woods of the Champs Elysees in the distance.

When we consider that Paris has been the theatre of so many great political events which have convulsed Europe for thirty years past, few, if any subjects of equal interest for a picture could be offered to the public.
Admittance—50 cents.

SULPHUROUS BATHS.
DOLLOR RENOU, has the honor of informing his colleagues and the inhabitants of New-Orleans and of Louisiana, that he has removed his establishment of Sulphurous Baths from St. Ann Street, No. 122 to Barraks Street No. 156, at the corner of Burgundy in the house lately occupied by Dr. Formento.
It is generally known, how much benefit is obtained by sulphurous bath in cutaneous diseases, rheumatic complaints, palseis and other serious complaints, it is needless to quote here the numerous instances of immediate cure, and relief afforded by the application of that remedy.
The room for the reception of white people is totally separate from the one fixed for negroes.
His new lodgings afford him the means of receiving certain number of sick persons wishing to board at his house.
He has provided a spacious hospital, and his house being situated in a retired part of the town less crowded with houses than others, makes the situation perfectly wholesome.
