MAYORALTY OF NEW ORLEANS—COUNCIL OF MUNICIPALITY NO. 1.

Session of Monday, 13th July, 1840.

THE Council of Municipality No. 1, ordain as follows:

1. From and after the promulgation of this ordinance no pedlar or hawker of goods, merchandize, jewelry, boots, shoes, hats, cape, hardware, cutlery, groceries, ready made clothes, stationary, &c. shall be permitted to offer for sale in any public place, road, levee or side walk, within this municipality, under a penalty for each offence of three days imprisonment and a fine of ten dollars; and moreover for the faithful performance of this ordinance the commissaries of the meat and vegetable markets are hereby held personally responsible, and shall be fined $25 for the first and second offence, and afterwards dismissed from office by the Mayor if they neglect their duty. The commissary of the meat market is obligated to inspect from St. Anne to St. Philip streets, and the commissary for the vegetable market, from St. Philip to Ursuline streets. The residue of this municipality shall escape the immediate inspection of the commissaries of the different wards or districts under the same conditions and penalties.

2. All keepers of taverns, coffee-house, grog shops, and all others who rent to or permit pedlars to station in front of their premises, shall pay a fine of $20 for each offence, and if suspected, their license shall be taken from them.

3. During the rising and falling of the waters are not sold, the occupants of the oyster stands on the levee are not permitted to sell any spirituous liquor, under the penalty of $25 for every offence. Oysters also are not permitted to sell other than fruit, under the same penalty.

4. The owner or owners of the ferry shall have a strong fence or enclosure erected on each and every lot one large gate in front of the landing, say thirty feet from on the Levee, extending on each side to the river—the gates to be shut and locked after the running of the boat shall have ceased.—The interior of the ferry shall have a ferry keep. clean under the penalty of $10 for each and every offence.

5. The stands or pavillions used for the sale of ice cream, lemonade, &c. shall be removed from the levee, after permission granted, if asked, to said occupants, to erect three small pavillions for that purpose under the trees of the public square, in front of the church, for which they will pay each $30 per month to this municipality, during the summer months.

6. From and after this date, no other stalls outside of the markets shall be permitted, (and that only during market hours, say (till ten o'clock, a. m.) but those that sell bacon, ham, pork, beef, corn, meal, fruit, rice, peas, beans, grain, vermicelli, coffee and spruce. The walk from the Levee to the vegetable market shall be kept free of market pedlars; and the walk from the Levee to the meat stalls of Messrs. Kerr, Peters & Millard, and the space on the Levee between the two markets, shall be at all times kept clean: the two commissaries are charged to see to these duties, each under a penalty of $15 for each neglect of duty.

7. The present resolutions shall be printed in French and English and published in six or seven newspapers, handbills and dred handbills shall be printed, and the Mayor requested to have them stuck up in the several parts of the three municipalities of this municipality, and every other public place, so that all persons interested may not plead ignorance of their promulgation.

[Signed] PAUL BERTUS, Recorder.

Approved, July 14, 1840.

[Signed] WM. FRERET, Mayor.
