STEANGE DISAPPEARANCE — An individual well known in this city, Mr. Barney Costello, residing at the corner of Crips and faggatele streets, Third Municipality, took passage some time ago of the steamboat Sullana, to accompany his daughter to the Louisville Convent. On the arrivation of the accurate back, Mrs. Costello, who was expecting her limband, went on board to enquire after him. There, she learned that Mr. Costello had failen overboard whilst going to Louisville, and was drowned. Subsequently, however, she was informed that her daughter, instead of being in the Louisville Convent, as she supposed, had boarded for some time in the St. Charles. All her efforts to meet her child were useless, the latter lawing left the above mentioned flotel and gone to paris unknown. Mrs. Costello fearing that both her husband and daughter were perhaps the victima of some four mentioned flotel and gone to paris unknown. Mrs. Costello fearing that both her husband and daughter were perhaps the victima of some foul machination, perplexed beyond measure, and loss in greft, were yesterday to Recorder (icnisi office and prayed his House to notify before him all the officers of the Sultana. The subponess were issued, and the case will be investigated shorily. City Intelligence.
