MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS.

This day week the Municipal elections throughout the city will take place. There is every prospect of an interesting but uneventful contest. In the Second Municipality, where a work agrees with a school board, have evaded the election, and so far as we can learn, a most important and active citizen, the element confined to the 1st of Alderman and members of the General Council—there being this year neither Mayor nor Recorder to be chosen—we have little doubt that it will be a pretty strong poll. We see that several Canal street both parties are fully and fairly in the field. The Whigs make their stand at the corner of Dauphin and Convention, while the Democrats are at the corner of St. Charles and Royal. The Democrats on the other hand have a little more and specification, and their candidates are nominated under the inspiring influence of specious political harangues. It does not follow that the party which makes the strongest appeal to the people, will be successful, though we are prepared to expect a fair battle in the Second Municipality. We think the Locos are more active than the Whigs; we know they are better organized, and the notorious in local elections turn out as magnificently as a President and members of the General Council.

The British Consul has taken a new and ornate dining room, and a large drawing room on Royal street.

Colonel John C. Calhoun.

New York, March 29.

The steamship Canada arrived at Helena last evening, having been delayed by the bad weather.

The British Ambassador had a friendly interview with Mr. Webster, who told him he had received the assurance of his friends
in the Second Municipality.

He referred to Washington's resolutions, to the composition of the General Council, and the element confined to the 1st of Alderman

and members of the General Council.

There is no doubt that the election will be a fairly strong poll.

On the contrary, we are shrewdly anxious on
that score.

Mr. Webster gave to Mr. Webster the handsome gift of a silver watch and a silver bracelet.

Mr. Webster, however, did not accept the bracelet, but he did accept the watch.

He said, "I am very glad to receive your kind gift, but I do not want to accept it."

Mr. Webster said, "I am very glad to receive your kind gift, but I do not want to accept it."
