The foundation of my preference, is, that, Mr. Fillmore was administered the Executive Government with equal success and ability, as Washington. I have not found true, faithful, and conscientious.—HENRY CLAY.

If there be those, North or South, who oppose the administration for the North, as opposed to that for the South or against the North, they are not the men who should receive suffrages from me. For my own part I know only a country, my whole country, and nothing but my country.— MILLARD FILLMORE'S Address on his landing at New York.
