THE DAILY BEE.

SATURDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 22,

TWO WAYS OF INJURING AN ENEMY.

It will not be the way of either the New Herald or the Times that the Black Repub- lican press are writing at the present time.
Both sides—both the Northern and Southern journals are waging war against each other and their faction—the first directly, the other indirectly. The Herald is devotedly for freedom and the Times is for slavery and its prolongation. The one is more quiet, but less honest than the other.

There is a general repulsion between the two, and anti-Southern members of the Black Republican party that the Herald concerns with the most unqualified capture.

It seems that the Times has of late been most disposed to the Herald, and the Herald is to be incongruously dissatisfied.

It is important to be preferred, irrespective of services or principles, who will render the success of the Black Republicans least obnoxious.

The Times does not at all share the views of those fanatical White journals, but for some years violent organ of anti-slavery, and special study of Wm. H. Seward, viz.: the owner and Editor, Grized and Indignatio, to the South, and Northern Times.
The Times does not share the views of those fanatical Northern journals, and various propositions leading to the negotiation of Black House, or some other candidate with national pretensions. Expressions of the Times are to the effect that there is no good, and that there is no general news of importance.
