

Octavio Cisneros Mañón
TV and Film Producer & Director
(Mexico City, March 12, 1977)

Octavio Cisneros began his official career in 1996 as a producer in VOX-FM and XEW-AM radio stations. In 1998, Octavio began working with independent production houses for film advertising, as Musical Assistant and Production coordinator.

In the year 2000, Octavio joins the team of the Producer Carmen Armendariz, as a Filmmaker and Head Production of TV shows, such as: "La botana", "Trapitos al Sol".

On 2000, he joins the production of a film called "The second air" as part of the art team.

He joins Univision Network in the year 2002 as Production Manager and becomes the Producer of Special events in a program called "Control"

In 2005, due to the different needs that some companies of United States had in order to produce in Mexico, Octavio Cisneros creates a company called PlasticFilms to produce and direct cinema advertising with customers such as: Macedo Advertaising Inc, Clear Image Creative, Ford.

In the year 2006, he returned to Televisa as Production Manager in the morning show "HOY" and two years after joins the production team of Mr. Nino Canun, where he currently works as General, and Associate Producer making Tv. programmes and events. With Tv Shows such as: "Al Sabor del Chef", "A comer con Coca-Cola", "Prime Gourmet", "Prémios Juventud", "Teletón 2011" and Prémios lo Nuestro 2012 "