

Mr. Cooke
under his auspices.

I am now so thoroughly engaged that I shall excuse myself delivering the letter by till next week.

I know Mr. Hawes will be gratified by the termination of my month's absence.

With kind regards to all your party, believe me

Yours very sincerely

My dear Mr. Hawes.

I am ashamed to say that I have had in my possession for some weeks sundry, cooked-Lat, and other shaped notes, from my nephew, Charles.

As I always intended, and still intend to deliver them personally to the branches of your family
