THE DAILY BEE,
PUBLISHED BY
G. P. WEBER & CO.,
EDITORS AND PROPRIETORS.
G. P. WEBER, S. ELBERT,
B. DUVERGER, M. DUPUY.
DAILY PAPER, (one year in advance).....$12 00
COUNTRY PAPER, semi-weekly, (one year in advance).....6 00
In all cases, subscribers must give one week's notice in writing, before they can be allowed to discontinue.

The New Orleans Bee.

RATES OF ADVERTISING.
[illegible] every line [illegible] is and Sunday mornings, [illegible] and [illegible] per square each insertion.
Advertisements inserted at intervals will be charged [illegible] every time the law of their publication may require.
The privilege of Annual Advertisers is limited to [illegible] and they will be allowed to make no square every other day.

OFFICE, 83 CHARTRES ST. NEW ORLEANS, TUESDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 14, 1856. VOL. XVII—NEW SERIES, VOL. XXX—WHOLE NO

THE DAILY BEE.

TUESDAY MORNING, OCT. 14, 1856.

Subscriptions by the Week.

The carriers of the Bee are authorized to receive subscriptions by the week, at the rate of 25 cents.

☞ Mr. J. Ollis is the only person authorized to collect accounts in the city for the New Orleans Bee.

☞ The foundation of my preference, is, that, Mr. Fillmore has administered the Executive Government with signal success and ability. He has been tried and found true, faithful, honest and conservative."—HENRY CLAY.

☞ "If there be those, North or South, who desire an administration for the North, as against the South, or for the South as against the North, they are not the men who should give their suffrages to me. For my own part I know only my country, my whole country and nothing but my country."—MILLARD FILLMORE'S ADDRESS ON HIS LANDING AT NEW YORK.

REGISTER YOUR NAMES.

No person, though fully qualified by birth, naturalization, or residence, can vote at the ensuing Presidential election, UNLESS HE IS REGISTERED.

The NORTHERN MAIL came through yesterday, via Cincinnati.

ANOTHER MADMAN.

We alluded yesterday to the disunion rhapsody of Henry A. Wise, and stated our belief that he is laboring under monomania—a belief which, we perceive, is shared by the Richmond Enquirer, the more prompt of Virginia. But Wise is not the only prominent politician in the country whose mind is affected. There is an illustrious companion in the same mad house noted an individual than Henry A. Lane, commander of the Freesoil army recently enacted such horrors in Kansas, and which at the last accounts was in full retreat towards Nebraska. This warrior is quite as truculent and bloodthirsty as the indomitable Wise, but with this difference, that the former wants to exterminate the South, while the latter seems to do deeds of desperate valor in the North. Lane has written a letter to Messrs. Dunphan & Beeny of Missouri, which he makes almost as many pretensions as Wise did in his Richmond speech, and concludes with the following characteristic proposition:

"I select one hundred actual slaveholders, and raised in slave states, who are personally engaged in this conflict, and among the number; and I will guarantee that one slaveholding life shall not be sacrificed, myself included; we be stripped and having the right to choose defiance, and weapons in the presence of twelve men of the Senate and twelve members of the House of Representatives of the United States, half of whom shall be selected by the Slave States by mutual agreement that each of the parties thus selected shall be a slaveholder, and save Kansas from slavery."

In Kansas this LANE must be met, or it cannot build! Does it not appear that the dark Kane have resolved to constitutional guerrilla warfare, as waged by the judicial committees of the Senate and House of Representatives assembling in solemn conclave, to witness a pitched battle between the two bands capering around like the fashion of the days of Celtic story, while in fact the whole room was responsible for the considerable amounts, wagered between themselves, to see who believed in its [illegible] and oracular statements. In 1844, the issue was directly the cause of the Texas annexation, which were staked on the issue, the strength of its partial results, [illegible] assertions that the Clay, while in fact the Democrats were responsible for the Northern clan, and the Southern followers: sitting [illegible] the two bands capering after the fashion of the days of the good old times of Celtic story, would be roundly fought [illegible] and the McFrosts and humane spectacle it [illegible] how very likely it would [illegible] peaceful adjustment of the [illegible] that if there were any fight [illegible] combat should be re [illegible] combat—as in the [illegible] hearted, and we [illegible] Wise and Lane be pitted [illegible] There would be an evi [illegible] counter. Wise is a duelist, and Lane of another; [illegible] in order to secure a firm [illegible] for the shin and gin [illegible] treading for a brawl [illegible] Border out of Kansas. [illegible] fall in the persons [illegible] be a gainer, for it [illegible] ancient nuisances—the [illegible] ons, about punished up [illegible] other with not an [illegible] opposite to render him [illegible] relief and trouble. If [illegible] sel to dispute by arms [illegible] Union of North and South, [illegible] and most each [illegible] Otherwise, [illegible] unacceptable.

FLORIDA—MORE GAINS.

We published the returns from [illegible] wards, exhibiting a net gain [illegible] compared with the Presidential [illegible] when Pierce carried the [illegible] majority. We have since received [illegible] from Jackson and Duval [illegible] which gives a majority for [illegible] candidate for Governor [illegible] been heard from in past—[illegible] give him 125 majority, and [illegible] increase it to beyond [illegible]

	1852.
Counties.	McKinney.	Scott. Pierce.
[illegible]	—	1
[illegible]	—	60
[illegible]	—	41
[illegible]
[illegible]
20 net gain

[illegible] the gain previously reported, [illegible] in seven counties WARREN [illegible] In these counties his [illegible] Should he make an average [illegible] per county in the rest of the [illegible] It is probably a tight [illegible]

[illegible] returns will be found under [illegible] head. They do not alter the [illegible] expressed. We think the Fillmore [illegible] Have triumphed, but the race is a [illegible] We have no doubt the State is safe [illegible]

[illegible] thing the readers of the Bee [illegible] our entire impartiality [illegible] returns. We would not [illegible] tion endeavor to mislead [illegible] by the suppression, distortion or [illegible] of political intelligence. [illegible] in all instances publish the [illegible] the careful investigation of [illegible] to discover it. Of this [illegible] Americans and Whigs [illegible] The practice, the dangerous [illegible] of presenting only the [illegible] aspect of an election is reprehensible, for it frequently [illegible] erroneous amounts, based upon [illegible] statements. In 1844, the [illegible] was directly the cause of the [illegible] success, which were staked on [illegible] the strength of its partial returns [illegible] published assertions that the Clay, while in fact the [illegible] was responsible for the [illegible] considerable amounts, wagered [illegible] with see who believed in its [illegible] and oracular statements. [illegible] nothing to do with such [illegible] We shall invariably [illegible] the facts, and give them without [illegible] impair their significance.

[illegible] Ratification Meeting.—As may [illegible] in another column, the [illegible] New Orleans contemplate [illegible] fication meeting at the [illegible] Canal street, this evening, [illegible] to ratify the proceedings [illegible] at Baltimore by convention of Fillmore and Donelson.

[illegible] the subject of this meeting, we [illegible] recurring to a conversation [illegible] member to have heard some [illegible] An excited old Democrat was [illegible] one of his Whig neighbors [illegible] mark that the Whig party were [illegible] "Ah," retorted the Whig, [illegible] the definition? The Whig [illegible] defeat, by their very con- [illegible] were, hoking the ship of [illegible] the Democratic party are [illegible] ay and every breeze: the [illegible] splitting the sea of political [illegible] ther, the helm, with which [illegible] the shallows of faction and [illegible] fanaticism." A [illegible] Humor was their helmsman. [illegible] from they rejoiced in him a [illegible] defiance, and now that the good old [illegible] have been cuts, and breakers [illegible] they do aught else than place [illegible] the helm!

The Americans of New York city have made the following nominations:

For Mayor.....	Isaac O. Barker.
" Judge.....	John H. White.
A multitude Governor, Benj. R. Finch.
Corporation Counsel	Louis K. Glover.

By Telegraph.

Transmitted to the New Orleans Bee.

LATER FROM CALIFORNIA.

LATER FROM NICARAGUA.

ARRIVAL OF THE GEORGE LAW.

FROM CALIFORNIA.

COLUMBIA, Oct. 11.—The Stanly county Law has secured a majority of nearly two millions of dollars. Weller's Governor of Panama was inaugurated on the 10th ultimo, and the mayor's place on the 11th inst.

The news from California is unimportant. Durkee and Reed were tried for piracy in taking the State arms from the schooner and acquitted.

Trade is dull, and politics is now absorbing.

The Democrats are endeavoring to unite all the various elements in opposition to the Vigilance Committee. The result is doubtful.

FROM NICARAGUA.

The news from Nicaragua by the steamer George Law, to the 1st inst., is to the effect that Gen. Walker was at Granada with about 1,000 men, and all opposition to him at an end, but it was reported, would shortly occasion Gen. Corral and Chamorro proceed to invade Costa Rica.

FLORIDA ELECTION.

COLUMBIA, October 13.—The U. C. Telegraph passed Gayle at 10; Eddleton and Middleton at 11; Hackney at 12; Hall, Col. H. Ossinton at 2; Eastman at 3 P. M.; Dupenier at 11; Pollard at 2; St. Charles at 4 o'clock, Sunday.

MARKETS.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—Flour closed firm. Wheat closed firm with an advancing tendency—white is $1 30 to 1 35. Corn closed at 85 to 87. Pork is buoyant at $19 50. Lard opened very dull at 13½.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 13.—Flour closed dull at $6 75. Whisky $1c.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—Cotton closed firm. The sales of to-day amounted to 3,000 bales. Flour is less sensitive in quotations at $5 10. Sterling Exchange is firm at 9½ discount. Gold is buoyant. Freights are firmer.

STEAMBOATS PASSING.

VICKSBURG, Oct. 12.—The Anglo arrived down at 1, Republican at 3, and the Eclipse at 5, P. M.

BACK TO TENNESSEE.

We learn from the Macon (Georgia) Citizen that the Hon. CHARLES JOHNSON, of that State, who, a short time ago, wrote a letter announcing his purpose to vote for BUCHANAN, has taken the back track, and now avows his intention of supporting Mr. FILLMORE. This change of mind on the part of Mr. JOHNSON has been brought about by the late article from the Buffalo Commercial Advertiser upon the subject of the registration of the Missouri Congressmen, which was published in full and to a number of other gentlemen by Mr. FILLMORE himself, and which clearly and fully expresses Mr. FILLMORE'S views on that question. We rejoice, says the Richmond Whig, to believe that the pleasant article will dig again every dozen or more of these death-dealing assassins. One vote absconsy cuts down every enemy adieu from the ranks of the States, one vote absconsy cuts down every enemy adieu from the ranks of the States, one vote absconsy cuts down every enemy adieu from the ranks of the States, one