Can be Consulted at her Residence,

No. 102 Bienville street,

Nothing is more surprising than to hear a stranger tell one's whole history, as it were, from the most minute particulars. In the course of the many who have consulted her that can deny her superior powers of skill, or that she will tried them, slightly step from ordinary, results, one by one, her most prompt predictions realized each year of their lives! What one who has seen but but will admit that she has brought back to vividly to the mind, scenes of joy and happiness—forgotten and shadowed, and rekindled anew deeply hidden away in the heart, deemed impossible for another to discover! And yet she has, with her remarkable talent brought it forth to the light, and that, too, without the least hesitation before him. And those that are still tried with miserable absence should consult the truly wonderful lady at once, for the more that her powers are tested the more reliable she is established for her unsurpassable reliable reputation in her profession.

Madame LA BLANCH'S residence, No. 102 Bienville street, between Bourbon and Dauphin streets, two squares below Canal street.

Consultations given in French and English. Terms for Ladies and Gentlemen, moderate to suit the times.
