TERMS OF THE BEE.

SUBSCRIPTION.

Daily Paper, one year in advance, $15
Quarter Sheet, tri-weekly, one year in advance, 10

No subscription taken for less than a quarter. In all cases, whether the subscription be for the daily paper or for the quarter sheet tri-weekly, it will be considered as the engagement of the year, and be so collected, unless due notice is given before the expiration of the previous subscription of the year.

ADVERTISING.—One dollar per square, for the first insertion; and half that price for each subsequent one; any alteration from the original advertisement will be charged as a new one. TEN lines or less to be from ONE to TEN times, charged as a square.

ADVERTISEMENTS not specified as to time will be published one month, and charged accordingly.

Advertisements inserted at intervals will be charged $1 per square for each insertion.

Merchants and Commission Merchants, Auctioneers, Banks, Insurance Companies, Hotels, Steamboats, &c. &c. To advertising by the year, a liberal deduction will be made. Persons advertising by the year will be entitled to one square of advertising, and the privilege of changing it quarterly.

The privilege of annual advertising does not extend to one square only, but to any number of squares, or to all the sales, business notices, &c. which any one may have to insert. All matter exceeding the usual length of a square will be charged for separately.

Notices which are to be published in the Bee, will be admitted only on the condition that the Editors are to be paid for them, whether they insert them or not.

Persons who advertise in the Bee, by the week, are expected to pay in advance.

The Bee will be delivered to subscribers in the city, at FIVE DOLLARS per month, payable monthly. Those who advertise in the Bee, by the week, are expected to pay in advance.
