SOLD ON ACCOUNT OF DEPARTURE.

THE handsome plantation of Mr. P. Blanchard, situated on the bank of the river Mississippi, two miles below the city, and on the same side.

There is one arpent and eight toises on the river, upon eighty in depth, of which from about thirty to forty is enclosed.

Upon the property is established a brick yard, which is in full operation, and affords a great revenue, susceptible of being augmented still more.

The buildings are all new, and in a good state, and consists as follows—facing the river:

A house two stories high, containing on the second story four apartments, two large cabinets, a front and back gallery, the whole painted and papered anew, and on the first story, which is even with the ground, likewise four apartments, of which the first is used as a dining room, the second as a pantry, the third as a cellar, and the last as an ironing room.

Before the house is a handsome little parterre, embellished with beautiful shrubbery and flower trees, selected with great care and taste—the alleys are made of brick, and the yard back of the house there is a kitchen, servant rooms, built in brick, a well also built in brick, a hen house, a pigeon house, privies, &c. &c.

A fine orchard which produces well.

Further in arrear is an overseer's house, a hospital, a hen house, a pigeon house, a privy, negro cabins, blacksmith shop, stables for horses and for cows, &c. &c.

The brick yard which is very extensive consists of three large kneeders, three large furnaces to burn the bricks in, a shed, together with staging and planks to dry the bricks on.

The establishment by its distribution is so arranged that the process of making bricks need not be suspended during rainy weather.

The above establishment, with or without the negroes upon it, will be sold on reasonable conditions, and all the accretions will enter immediately into account.

Persons desiring the said property can come and visit it, and for the terms application can be made to Mr. P. Blanchard, on the place.

LOUISIANA PENSIONNAT.

Under the direction of Mr. Chas. Cuvellier.

THE Boarding School is established on the plantation lately owned and occupied by Mrs. Larussie.—No attention in the vicinity of New-Orleans unites more advantages for an establishment of the kind. The buildings are extensive and distributed in a manner favorable to the maintenance of interior order, though in the immediate neighborhood of the city, with regard to healthiness, the same security as a country place; and the localities are too well known to need description.

Those persons who will take the trouble of visiting the establishment, will convince themselves, that it would be almost impossible to find a more eligible spot for its location.
