We learn from the Mississippian, that elections have jus taken place in Hinds, Medison and Holmes counties, for te Presentatives to fill the vacuacies occasioned by the maigna tion of Cul. Williamson and Mr. Bule, and the death of Ger Allen. In all these counties, which the Whig and Naififiation presess have claimed as belonging to their party, knew there was so hope for them in Holmes, and did no start a bandicate. Of the candidates in that county, Dr. George and Mr. Dulany, we have not heard which is elected In Hinds, Thomas H. Whiteams, although not known as andidate for more than ten days previous to the election beat his apponent, Mr. R. Callins, the randidate of the Nuliliying and White party, between two and three hundred rates. In Madison, Mr. Pulton has been elected by a ma jority, of about eighty votes over Dr. T. J. Cutching, the Vallifier and the Whig. Mr. Pulton would have been elected by a much larger majority—say two hundred votes—had it not been for a mironderstanding which existed for some time before the election between him and Mr. Geoch, who having become known only a few days prior to the day on then Mr. Goock had withdrawn from the canvass. These counties have been claimed by the whige of THIRTY rors. It was to these counting principally, where elections It was here that it was proclaimed by the advocates of whiggery that his (Mr. P's) reception was a continued tri umph, and to these counties the Whign and Nullies through much for modern Whigitm and Nultification in Mindanip pi. So much for the versetty of the statements of the pres ses of the go den collar with regard to public sentiment i that State. We can now say, without fear of contradiction from neutral men, that there are not five counties in the State where modern whigism predominates; and still it in
