This has been done, and the improvement is apparent in a least the communication. st, and labored longest for a triumph. Watch car asked at every corner. The night is still crowded state of some departments, and a ge is not yet fully marshalled for the fray. But it must arouse and equip itself, don its armor, and sieze the spear and falchion, for the enemy is the city papers, it certainly does not receive so much attention as formerly, while it really de-serves, for several reasons, a higher commendation. This may be owing in a measure to the fact that the managers are willing to let its in-trinsic merits attract notice rather than person-to put to profit the brief period yet left to them, and to do their work as becomes men who have such as take. Something, we admit, has beed don--organization has not been altogether neglected. We have surely and resolute and przecvering spirits among the Whige who, in some of the Wards, are ishoring with unrelayed and przecvering spirits among the Whige who, in some of the Wards, are ishoring with unrelayed as in which they are engaged. But this is not all no their of what should be accomplished. To ensure an unbroken and splendid triumph, we need an organ xation that will embuse every detrict in the city, that will include every voter in the districts, and that will embuse every detrict in the city, that will include every voter in the districts, and that will ensure beyond the based of every Whig vote. We lay it down as an incontrovershile proposition that New Orteans is Witto by a clear and decided majority, and we could, if necessary, demonstrate the fact, by reference to nearly every general election in which a live of was exast.
