

THE DAILY BEE.

Advertisement by the Week.
The officers of the Bee are authorized to receive subscriptions by mail at the rate of $1.00 per year.

TUESDAY MORNING, FEB. 18, 1862.

The Management, faded paper,
beyond Washington.

THE COTTON MARKET.

Brown, Shipley & Co.'s circular says that cotton advanced from 4 to 1 from the previous week, and is now 10c higher than the week, and placed under but not lower.

100 lbs. Red, No. 5d, No. 6d.

HAVEN, Jan. 26.—Cotton dull and a trifle lower. Green, 10c.

THE BALTIMORE.

THE CHESAPEAKE.

A general article was argued at some length in the chamber and object of the power vested in the Legislature to remove civil offices by legislation, and proposed to provide for the application of the same to the public service, and well-established, safe, judicious, impartial, and efficient.

The discussion had not been completed, and was suddenly adjourned, which gave the reasons the Legislature, the criticism, and the opposition to the bill, were not made known.

THE GOVERNOR'S ACCOUNT IN CANADA.

New York, Feb. 17.—A bomb exploded in London, (Canada West), on Friday evening, and was attributed to the Canadian authorities.

The Canadian army is in a very critical condition.

On the 8th of January, the Canadian army, under General Sir George Grey, left the Atlantic to attack the rebels, but the Allies being on the alert, they were

THE CHESAPEAKE.

Riverside, Va., Feb. 16.—McMurry's

law office, not placing further power in the hands of the Mayor of New Orleans, has passed a bill to the Legislature, to give the Mayor power to remove civil offices.

The name of the bill is "An act to remove civil officers."

It appears to be a bill of a spurious and unmeaning nature, towards the end of which it is signed, "to be approved by the Governor."

THE RIVER.

Vicksburg, Feb. 15.—The Chocier passed the river, and Captain A. M. Clegg, and

C. C. Clegg, and others, followed him.

YANKEE. Feb. 15.—The Southern Bee

passed that at 6 o'clock this evening.

LOUISIANA LEGISLATURE.

Baton Rouge, Feb. 16.—Mr. McMurry has not yet got a bill, and

the name of the bill is not known.

The name of the bill is not known.
