METHOD OF LEARNING TO READ IN 30 LESSONS.—MR VANNIER, surveyor, former engineer on the Burgundy Canal, author of the unpublished abridged method to teach reading French in 30 lessons, proposes to put this admirable method into practice, either by private lessons, or in the public course which takes place every day, from 6 o'clock in the morning to 10 at night, at 150 Chartres street, or at 61 St Ann.

The professor will apply the same abreviated method of instruction, according to the intelligence of pupils, to writing, orthography, arithmetic, geometry, algebra, linear drawing, mensuration, book-keeping, and accounts of all kinds. n27

PENMANSHIP—All persons desirous of acquiring a good hand-writing, suited to business purposes, will call at DOLBEAR'S WRITING ACADEMY, corner of Canal street and Exchange Place, conducted by Messrs. A. & E. Everett. The system taught is calculated to correct all cramped habits, by giving the pupil an easy position of the body and hand, and thus removing the causes of such habits; and it entirely removes the feeble and tremulous appearance of writing resulting from nervous affections, by enabling the pupil to write chiefly with the arm, which is always steady, instead of the fingers, which are not so. Pupils are attended to at such hours or the day as are to them the most convenient, and for the accommodation of such as cannot spare time during the day, there is a Night class beginning at 7 o'clock.

Ladies who prefer it, receive lessons at their own residences. j18

Mr. James will give his whole attention to the various branches of education, and flatters himself that he will give entire satisfaction to those who may honor him with their confidence.

Mrs. James, whose reputation as a teacher of vocal and instrumental music, has been tested by fourteen years' experience, will give lessons on the piano and guitar.

Terms—payable monthly:
Elementary class $8, junior $10, senior $15, piano $8, guitar $6, per month.
A month begun must be paid in full.
An evening class will be opened for French and English. Mr. James will give private lessons in fencing.
