LONGEVITY IN CANADA—The Montreal Her-ald mentions some singular instances of louger-ity brought to light by the late census. It says:

"We understand that more than twenty per-sons are returned whose sage sexces one lum-ified years. The most venerable patriarch of these, if we make uo mistake, resides in the township of Grey, Simone county, aged 113 years. Ninety-five years ago he scale the clifs of sluebec with General Wolfe; so that his re-idence in Causda is coincident with British-rule in the Province. He has attacked himself to the Indiana, and lives, in all respects, like of Juebec with General Wolfe; so that his residence in Canada is coincident with British rule in the Province. He has attached himself to the Indians, and lives, in all respects, like them. This vectoran is named Abram Miller.
