SCHOOLS.

MRS. R. BAQUIE & MRS. A. J. BAQUIE'S Academy for Young Ladies, St. Peter street, No. 186, between Rampart and Burgundy streets.—Mrs. Regnier Baquie and her daughter, Mrs. J. A. Baquié, having for some time past, given up their whole attention to the education of young ladies, will open, on the 15th November, an Academy, wherein will be taught,

Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, the English, French and Spanish languages; History, Geography, and its different branches, Mythology, Piano Forte, Harp, Singing, Drawing and Dancing.

The English being Mrs. A. Baquie's native language, and Mrs. R. Baquié speaking it with the same fluency as her vernacular tongue, will receive all that attention which its importance in this community calls for. The studies, including a chain of reading, will be guided both in French and English.

Mrs. R. Baquié having hitherto moved in the highest circles of the different countries in which she has resided, will be the more adequate to the task of forming the manners of her parlour boarders.

SEMINARY FOR YOUNG LADIES.

MESSRS PLATET, BROTHERS, have the honor of informing the public, that having been solicited for some time by several parents of their pupils, to establish a school for young ladies, have opened the school for young ladies, to be kept by Mr Platet, jun., and by his lady.

That said school shall be entirely separated from that of the boys. Messrs Platet believe it unnecessary to give a detail of the different branches of instruction, their establishment being well known for many years past. Suffice it to say, that the profession of one of their brothers is daily expected from France to aid them in their academy.

The terms of boarding is twenty dollars per month. Books are charged separately. No deduction is made for absence. A month begun is considered as finished and will be charged accordingly.

This establishment is intended for persons of color.

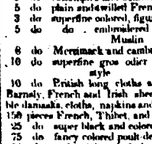
METHOD OF LEARNING TO READ IN 20 LESSONS.

MR. VANNIER—Surveyor, former Engineer on the Burgundy Canal, author of the unpublished abridged method to teach Reading French in 20 Lessons, proposes to put this admirable method into practice, either by private lessons, or in the public course which take place every day, from 6 o'clock in the morning to 10 at night, at 126 Toulouse street, between Bourbon and Dauphin.

Mr. Vannier will apply the same abreviated method of instruction according to the intelligence of pupils, to writing, orthography, arithmetic, geometry, algebra, linear drawing, mensuration, book keeping, and accounts of all kinds. may 14 1m6w



PENMANSHIP, PRACTICAL & ORNAMENTAL, taught at Dolbear's writing academy, at the corner of Canal street and Exchange alley. The extensive patronage which their method of teaching writing has received in various parts of the United States, and the increasing application for instruction in the science, as well as the practice of writing, has induced them to establish a permanent academy in New York, New Orleans and Mobile; and it is their intention to afford greater facilities for the acquisition of penmanship, than are afforded by any other institution in the country. Persons can enter at any time, have the privilege of attending either of the others, without extra charge. The ladies and gentlemen are respectfully invited to call. Specimens of rapid improvement, given by persons from 8 to 50 years of age, who have entered the above academies in this city, may be seen at any hour of the day.

Ladies are taught a delicate and rapidly expeditious style; also, various styles of Ornamental Writing, suited to Albums, Testimonials, &c.

Gentlemen are taught a free and expeditious handwriting, calculated to facilitate business transactions, by dispensing with the delay incident to deciphering illegible hands; also, a style peculiarly adapted to the counting house, and characterized by the utmost simplicity and elegance.

The hours of attendance are so arranged as to suit the convenience of each pupil, and for the accommodation of those whose business does not admit of their taking lessons during the day, there is a night class, beginning at 7½ o'clock.

The number of lessons is not limited, but every person who enters is desired to remain until he writes sufficiently well for any kind of business. This is the interest of both teacher and pupil.

A liberal deduction in charge made to families and to classes
