NOTICE.—To those who are desirous to preserve their health. The admirable remedy for all the diseases that assail the stomach, by J. B. Montagne, has produced, under critical circumstances, during the late malady, the most satisfactory results; and all persons who have made use of it during that period, are now in excellent health.—It has proved a speedy remedy against those cramps in the stomach, difficult respirations, and weakness of the stomach, for which the apothecaries have prescribed various remedies, which are hardly ever effectual. It may be taken as a dram, as bitters, directly before breakfast; it will facilitate digestion, and is agreeable to the taste.

The proofs of which have already been given of its efficacy, not only in this city, but amongst the slaves on the plantations of Charles Derbigny, as well as the workmen employed on the tract of Mr. Camille Zeringue, are sufficient to establish its merits.

It will be very easy for the planters to make this composition, without recourse to any druggist or apothecary. Those who desire it may learn from the author the ingredients of the recipe, either by subscription or for a reasonable compensation, and they may rest assured that the secret will remain inviolate. They, of course, are expected to preserve it.

J. B. MONTAGNE.

N. B. A subscription list is deposited at Hewlett's Exchange, where the remedy can be tested. dec 17

NOTICE.

A LA COUTURE, Confectioner, and distiller, has the honor of informing his friends and the public that he has opened a superb establishment at No. 21, Levee street, between Bienville and Custom-house streets. The care with which he has taken in the selection of the articles that form his establishment, the advantages of its situation; the acquisition of several additional slaves; the correspondences which he established during his recent voyage to France and Havana, will combine to insure a regular and entire supply from a broad of whatever articles are not manufactured at home. He will furnish country merchants and masters of vessels with complete supplies; and will take equal pains to fill every order that may be sent him. He will always keep a general assortment of the following articles: cordials of all kinds in cases and in barrels; wines of every quality and assortment of syrups; sugar plumbs, fine and common; Havana confectionary; fruits preserved in brandy; pastry; all kinds bonbons, fine and crystalized; candies, lemon, mint, hearhound, &c. &c. He hopes that the public will continue the encouragment which they have hitherto honored him with. dec 17

CARSTAIRAN'S
SYSTEM OF WRITING.

MR. DOLBEAR, Professor of Penmanship, has returned to New Orleans, & will re-open his writing establishment in this city, on this day 29th inst. at No. 48 Canal street, in the rooms over Miss Carroll's Book Store, where Ladies and Gentlemen are respectfully invited to call and examine specimens of the rapid improvement of persons from eight to upwards of sixty years of age.

New classes will commence every week during the winter and spring. A separate apartment for Ladies.

Persons visiting the city for a few days only, can receive a full course of lessons. Ladies are instructed, in a neat, rapid and fashionable style of writing; by a method which obviates, entirely, the fatigue of writing; and gentlemen in a style, bold and rapid. Hours of attendance for Ladies; one class from 10 to 1 P. M. another from 1 to 2 P. M. The remainder of the day and evening until 10 P. M. will be devoted to the instruction of Gentlemen.

Mr. D. expects his brother, from their establishment at the North this week, when they will be prepared to give private lessons and execute all kinds of ornamental writing in a superior style, &c.

CERTIFICATES.

From his Excellency Governor Roman.

I have examined, with attention, the system of writing taught by Mr. Dolbear, and it is with pleasure that I can certify to its superiority over any other method with which I am acquainted. Mr. Dolbear having given private lessons in my family, I consider it but justice to add, that I believe him an acquisition worthy of public patronage on account of the correctness and mildness of his character, as well as on account of the rapid improvements of those who received his lessons.

New Orleans, May 24, 1832. A. B. ROMAN.

On the invitation of Mr. Dolbear, a Teacher of Penmanship, in our city, upon the Carstairian system; we have carefully examined specimens of the writings of his pupils, whose ages ranged from 5 to 50 years, written through the entire course of instruction; and after having done so, is with the highest satisfaction, that we can testify to the rapid if not unparalleled, progress which they have made.

From the specimens seen, and the examination of the system made, we cannot withhold the expression of a concurrent opinion, that the system is greatly superior to any hitherto taught. If to write lucidly, elegantly, rapidly, and in good taste, be an accomplishment, useful or desirable, it is upon the principles of this system that it is to be acquired. We therefore anxiously solicit of the public a liberal patronage in favor of an Instructor, whose qualifications are of the highest order, and whose labors promise to be as unequivocally useful to this and other communities.

A. B. Roman, Governor of the State of Louisiana; D. Prieur, Mayor of the City of New Orleans; Rev. C. Maenhaut; Rev. O. E. Nash; A. Graithe, Esq; Rev. G. Winslow; J. W. Ellis, Esq; Wm C. Pope, Esq; D. Murphey, Esq; L. Bringier, Surveyor General. dec 20

The subscriber offers for sale at private sale his slave HELIE, a mulattress, with her three children WILLIAM, BETSEY, and CAROLINE. She is an excellent seamstress, good washer and good house servant, and can, if required be used as a good family cook; she speaks French and English, and a good subject, warranted against the maladies and vices as provided by law.

NEW-ORLEANS OMNIBUSES.

TWO New Carriages, one called 'The Cotton Plant' and the other 'The Tobacco Plant,' have taken the place of the former Omnibusses.—These Carriages were built last summer by the Messrs. Carters of Newark, who have the greatest experience in the construction of Omnibusses, (most of those running in New York having been made by them) and for ease, safety and elegance, are superior to any before in use, uniting all the improvements the makers experience have collected.

They will ply daily at the following stated hours, between the Levee Steam Cotton Press, and Canal street, head of Chartres street, (passing the Rail Road and Exchange Coffee House.) with four horses; under the management of careful Drivers—the fare is put at the low price of twelve and a half cents, which affords every one an opportunity of benefitting by them.—Every reliance may be placed on the continuance of the Line and the punctuality of starting; it will give a communication between the Lower Faubourg and Canal street, every half hour in the day, and it is confidently hoped that so great a public convenience will meet with merited support.

STATE OF LOUISIANA.
PARISH OF ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST.
COURT OF PROBATES.

ON TUESDAY, January 9th, 1833, at 12 of the o'clk. P. M. will be offered for sale at auction, through the Judge, ex-officio, auctioneer, on the plantation herein described, the following property, pending from the estate of the late Josephine Bozonnier Marmillon, by a former marriage, widow of the late Michel Leonnen, and the deceased wife, by a second marriage, of William Hart.

1st. A SUGAR PLANTATION, situate in this Parish, on the right bank of the Mississippi, measuring five arpents front, on said river, deducting, however, a slip of land, two arpents front, on a depth of two and four feet, previously constituting part of said land, and which is now the property of Jean Louis Handressy; said plantation is 40 arpents in depth, with a right to a double grant, excepting, however, that of the above mentioned slip; and is bounded on the upper line, by said slip, and by the plantation, belonging to the estate of the deceased wife of William Hart, and on the lower line, by the property of Norbert, Bocknel & Co. There are on the plantation, and depending from it, about 40 arpents of ratoons of this year's growth; a large dwelling house, in a tolerable condition; moreover, another dwelling, now tenanted by Jean Folse; together with an old rice mill, the usufruct of the last mentioned dwelling and mill, of a garden, an orchard, and the yard in which the whole is contained, is reserved in favor of the said Jean Pierre Folse, up to the 31 of April of the year 1836.

2d. 31 SLAVES, to-wit:—21 stout negroes, trained to field labour, one of them understands the management of a steam engine, and is moreover a caulker and ship sawyer; one carpenter, wheel-right and cooper; two cart drivers; one ploughman; one whip-sawyer; one house servant and cooper; five negro women, among them are two good house servants, and five children—the children will be sold with their mothers.

3d. A quantity of HOUSE FURNITURE, consisting of:—plate, tillage utensils, such as carts, carpenter's tools, cooper and blacksmith's do. together with many other articles, belonging to the use of a plantation; 11 teams of draught oxen; 12 milch cows; 5 steers; 15 draught horses, 9 mules, and 15 sheep.

—TERMS.—

The plantation, payable one-fourth in March, 1833, one-fourth in March, 1834, one-fourth in March, 1835, and lastly, one-fourth in March, 1836. The slaves, payable one-half in March, 1833, and the other in 1834. The moveables, payable in all March, 1833. The whole in notes endorsed to the satisfaction of the syndic, and payable, to-wit: those to be furnished for the payment of the plantation and slaves, payable at the Louisiana State Bank, in the city of New Orleans; those for the payment of the moveables at the domicil of the Judge of this parish, with a mortgage on the plantation and slaves until final payment. The deeds of sale for the plantation and slaves to be drawn before the Judge of this parish. The acts of deeds, records and raising of mortgage, at the expense of the purchasers.

St. John the Baptist, Dec. 5, 1832.

STATE OF LOUISIANA.
PARISH OF ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST.
COURT OF PROBATES.

ON TUESDAY, the 15th day of January, 1833, at 10 o'clock A. M. it will be proceeded by the Judge, ex-officio, auctioneer, undersigned, on the plantation hereinafter described, to the sale at public auction, of all the property belonging to the succession of the late François Rillieux and to the community of gains and property which has existed between him and Aimée Picou, his widow, viz:

1st. A SUGAR PLANTATION, situated in this parish, on the left bank of the Mississippi river, measuring fourteen arpents and a quarter front and forty in depth, with a double concession, bounded on the upper side by that of widow Thomassin Andry and Antoine Bouhousquié, and on the lower side by that of Joseph and Benjamin Carantin, as also the buildings and improvements thereon, consisting of a dwelling house, kitchen, store houses, hospital, carriage house, a brick sugar house and refinery; there will be at the moment of the sale, about 120 arpents of ratoons of this year, and a quantity of canes in matress sufficient to plant 100 arpents or about.

2nd. 40 SLAVES, of whom, 20 are American negroes and acclimated; 2 Creole negroes; 10 American negro women; 3 Creole negro women, and 8 children.

3rd. Some works of literature; household, farming utensils; 45 horned cattle, between whom are 15 pair of work oxen, and same milch cows; 14 horses; 6 mules, &c.

CONDITIONS.

The plantation payable ten thousand Dollars in March, 1833, and the balance in four equal instalments payable in all March of each successive year.

The slaves payable one-half in all March, 1834, and one-half in all March, 1835.

The moveables payable in all March, 1833.

The whole for approved endorsed notes, in compte, secured by mortgage and payable at the domicil of the Louisiana State Bank, with the exception of the notes to be given in payment of the moveables, which shall be made payable at the domicil of the Judge of this parish.

The acts of sale, mortgage, cancelling, &c. to be at the expense of the purchaser.

N. B. If all the aforesaid property is not sold on the above mentioned day, the sale at auction will continue the next day at the same hour.

ANACONDA,

OR, THE GREAT MOUNTAIN SERPENT,

Commonly called the terror of Ceylon, which is nearly eighteen feet in length.

BOA CONSTRICTOR, or Great Serpent of Java; next in size to the Anaconda, and its habits most similar. They are known to the natives of Hindostan by the appellation of the STRANGLING SERPENT, which, when full grown, are capable of killing large deer, buffaloes, and even tigers. The colors of those stupendous specimans of nature's works are vivid and beautiful beyond description: and some idea may be formed of their amazing voracity, from the circumstance of one of them swallowing several large fowls, with feathers and all at a meal. They are well secured in strong wire cages, so that the most timid lade can view them with perfect safety.

BOARDING AND DAY SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LADIES,

CONDUCTED BY

MDE. & MLLE. GARNET,

Mr. Landreau's house, Royal st. corner of St. Philip st.

TERMS.

THE course of studies lasts ten months from the first of November till the first of September every year.—☞ The establishment, this year, opens on the 24th of December.

A general examination, followed by a public distribution of prizes, closes the course of studies and the establishment is shut up from the first of September to the first of November, a period, during which the prevailing diseases induce most of the parents to retire to the country.

The course of studies comprises the complete and simultaneous teaching of the French and English languages and literature, writing, arithmetic, geography, chronology, history, astronomy, and the different sorts of needlework, lace making, tapestry, and fancy works.

Boarders for the course of studies of ten months,	$300
Day Boarders, do.	100
Day Scholars, do.	100
Washing and mending of the linen.	20

USEFUL ARTS.

Harp, per quarter,	30
Piano, do.	30
Italian singing, do.	30
Drawing,	20
Dancing,	20

Beds and bedding complete are found by the establishment, for which the pupils have to pay once for all. 5

Each pupil is to bring twelve towels, a silver spoon, fork and goblet, a dessert knife and a sufficient suit of clothes and linen.

School books and writing books are also found by the establishment, and paid for separately.

Payments to be made every three months and in advance. No deduction for the holidays or absence.

Madame Granet will make it a rule to avoid extra bills as much as possible, and will charge nothing but what she has actually laid out.

In opening such an establishment, Madame Granet is well aware that she can, as yet, have not claim herself to the confidence of the inhabitants of New Orleans, being totally a stranger in the city, she must entirely depend upon the kind recommendation of those persons of whom she is known, and among whom she is proud to mention the names of

His Excellency, A. B. Roman, Governor of Louisiana.
Mr. and Mrs. Mazureau,
Mr. and Mrs. Holland,
Mr. and Mrs. West,
Mr. and Mrs. Bover,
Messrs. J. F. Cantonge, Edmond Forstall, Wm. Nott, Theodore Nicolet, J. Garnier, Guertier & Boutin.

Madame Granet has been a long time at the head of a similar institution in Paris; and having since passed seven years in London, she has acquired a complete knowledge of the systems of education in both countries.

Madame Granet is assisted by her two daughters, the eldest of whom, a pupil of the best masters in France and England, teaches the Piano, singing and drawing.

French and English literature will be taught by competent professors, who have successfully practiced in London and in Paris.

A physician will be attached to the establishment.

Religion, the foundation of every good education, will be carefully attended to. One day in the week will be consecrated to religious instruction by a proper person, and the pupils will be taken to church every Sunday, when the weather permits it.

Madame Granet engages to devote herself entirely to the care and superintendance of her establishment; to consider her pupils as her own children, to give them food both substantial and wholesome, a solid and moral education. In a word, she will never lose sight of her laborious but most honorable undertaking, and will endeavor to deserve in every way the confidence and esteem of parents.
