FOR GOWERNOR: J. B. DAWSON. JOHN H. HOLLAND.

Through error it was stated in our paper of yesterday hat the poils had closed the preceding day for the election of ntstive to the General Assembly. It is to-day that the they close, and delinquent voters have still an apportunity of indicating their choice. No chizon should forego se imporrant a privilege; ben should do his duty.

We make give the Louisiana credit for the disand moderate manner in which it has, so far, conducted the discussion between it and ourselves. And if it would only leave off the pitiful and foolish attempt it makes to drag an individual, who is an distinct from the gubernatorial question as any of his other fellow cittzens, we might give it a much better character than it has had for some time past, and one infinitely superior to that sustained by the Argus when under the same direction. The excuse it gives cannot be same factory for making itself chnoxious in the one particular we complain of aspecially since it does not accompany its charge, which we have denied, with a single solitary proof.

Without entering, however, into a useless waste of words upon'a point so manifestly ridiculous, we shall content ourselves with saying, that from our own knowledge, we pronounce the statement to be false, intended only for political effect, and as a means of answering partisan purposes; and challenge the Louisians to establish the same by any plausible evidence, fit to be introduced. We are, on our part, prepared to maintain and show, from the character of the parties, that no improper relationship exists now, or ever has is prey impi existed, between them; and that the one is as incapable of being controlled as the other is of exercising a controlled fluence upon him whom he would support for the guh

"Judge Porter has been elected Senator to Congress by a minority of two votes. Its; decided there that Mr. Prienr is to be withdrawn from the lists as a candidate for the office of governor. This, however, is of little importance to the cause of Judge White; for every body knows that he could not by any possibility fail to obtain an overwhelming majority over all competitors. Mr. Prienr by his withdrawal gives at least one evidence of possessing a quality that his friends have with seat pertinacity attributed to him. I mean that of sagacity. I may be attributed to him. I mean that of sagacity. I may be about the may at least avoid defeat by declining the combat. At the back out at a critical juncture, be as some have thought, the very affection of wisdom, Prienr may with much propriety on that ground lay claim to it. But is it not in truth quite ridiculous for a man that with every affection of wisdom, and the prienral prienr

We are not aware that General Dawson has ever com miserated the unhappy South Carolinians, or opposed his self to the President's Proclamation. On the contrary, we do know that he presided, during the high state of excitemen in that State, at one of the largest meetings in Florida, held censure the nullification proceedings, and to sustain the vernment. We do further know, that in casual conversane which we have had with him, on one or two occasions, [expressed himself in the warmest terms of commendation as to the course which the President sdopped, and as to the loctrines which he advanced in the Proclamation.
