PARISH OF ORLEANS—Court of Probates—

The State of Louisiana—To all whom these presents may concern, greeting—Know ye that Eugene Sommerau, a resident of the city of New Orleans, has applied to me W F C Duplessis, Register of Wills, in and for the Parish and City of New Orleans aforesaid, for a mention or advertisement, in conformity to the act of the Legislature of the State, entitled "An act for the further assurance of titles to purchasers at judicial sales," approved on the 10th March, 1834, and it being to me known, that the said Eugene Sommerau became the purchaser of the following property hereinafter described, sold by Martin Bloche, late Register of Wills in and for the parish and city of New Orleans, on the third day of August, 1830, pursuant to a decree made by the aforesaid Court of Probates, on the 26th of June 1830, in the matter of the succession of Eugene Marchand deceased, as property belonging to said succession, and which was granted on the application of Annette Beloche, widow of said deceased, and curatrix ad hoc of her minor children.

Description of property, as given in the judicial conveyance.

1. A lot of ground situated in the suburb Montegut, designated by No 30, and measuring 60 feet on Montegut or Cavallos, by 120 feet in depth, more or less.

2. A lot of ground adjoining the above, designated by No 32, and measuring the same, front and depth.

3. A lot of ground adjoining the above, designated by No. 30, and measuring the same, front and depth.

The consideration of sale so made as aforesaid to the aforenamed Eugene Sommerau, was as follows, viz: for the property first described, the sum of four hundred and ten dollars; for that secondly described, the sum of two hundred and sixty dollars, and for that thirdly described, the sum of three hundred dollars, payable at a credit of one, two and three years, in notes satisfactorily endorsed, with special mortgage, until final payment.

Wherefore all persons who can set up any right, title or claim in and to the property herein described, in consequence of informality in the order, decree or judgment before recited and under which the sale was made, or any irregularity or illegality in the appraisements or advertisements, in time or manner of sale, or for any other cause or defect whatsoever, are hereby cited and admonished to show cause within thirty days from the publication hereof why the sale so made as aforesaid, should not be confirmed and homologated in accordance with the application of said purchaser.

Witness my hand and the seal of said court of Probates, this twentieth day of November, A D 1834.

SALES AT AUCTION.

BY THROU & CANONGE.

Parish of Jefferson—Court of Probates.

IN virtue of an order from said Court, will be sold on Saturday the 6th of December 1834, at noon, at Hewlett's Exchange coffee house, for account of the succession of the late Jean Murville Hatrick, the following slaves, to wit:

Beverly, aged about 24 years, and Rosine, a negro woman, aged about 25 years, cook and house servant, in the habit of running away.

That valuable estate on which the deceased resided, situated in suburb Livaudais, parish of Jefferson, measuring 100 feet 2 inches front on Levee street, 161 feet 10 inches front on Second street, and 126 feet front on Rousseau street. On the 6th line which is parallel to Second street, starting from Levee street, the lot runs on a first depth of 126 feet 2 inches where said lot is no more than 100 feet 10 inches wide, from which point, the lot runs afterwards till Rousseau st. on a second depth of 161 feet, which second depth is 126 feet wide; the whole comprising the six lots Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 9 and 10 of square No 9, according to the original plan of said suburb, together with a two story brick dwelling house, brick kitchen, and other his improvements, conformably to the plan thereof drawn by Benj. Buisson, surveyor for the parish of Jefferson, on the 24th Dec. 1833, and which shall be exhibited at the Exchange.

120 Shares in the Union Bank of Louisiana.

Terms: the slaves payable at 6 and 12 months, in notes satisfactorily endorsed, and bearing mortgage on the slaves till paid; the stocks cash; and the landed property payable as follows: 850 dollars cash, the purchaser assuming, moreover, at their respective maturity, the payment of two notes of the deceased, each for 850 dollars—the first becoming due on the 13th March 1835, and the other on the 13th March 1836; and taking upon himself the reversion of the existing mortgage in favor of Messrs. Morgan and others as security of said notes; the balance at 1 and 2 years credit, in notes endorsed to the satisfaction of the administratrix, and bearing mortgage on the property till paid.

The acts of sale to be passed before Théodore Seghers, notary public, and no possession to be given of the slaves, unless the notes be previously delivered to the notary and accepted by the administratrix. oct 31

BY FERNANDEZ & WHITING.

SYNDIC'S SALE OF PROPERTY.

ON Saturday the 6th day of December next, will be sold by public auction, at the Exchange coffee house, corner of Chartres and St. Louis streets, at twelve o'clock.

By virtue of an order from the Hon. the District Court for the parish and city of New Orleans, and by request of Messrs. J. W. Zacharie and Wm. Tufts, syndics of the estate of Tufts & Clarke, and of Wm. Tufts.—the following Property surrendered by them for the benefit of their creditors.

LAFAYETTE SQUARE.

That valuable three story brick dwelling house and lot, situated on South street, and running through to Girod street 149 feet 8 inches deep, and measuring 24 feet 8 inches on Girod street, bounded on one side by the property of C. H. Cook, and on the other by that of Mr. Pawling; the house was finished about a year since, and built in the most thorough manner, and contains two basement rooms and two pantries, two parlours, three bed chambers with two closets and two bed rooms, a hall in the main story.

The back building is of two stories, and contains a wine room, kitchen, wash room and privy on the lower story, and three chambers and a privy above. The parlours have elegant Egyptian marble mantles and brass mounted grates, and handsome center pieces; the knobs and mountings of the doors are of the best plate, the plastering of the parlours and chambers is turned off from the wall and cannot become damp.

In the rear of the house there is a gallery to the 2d and 3d stories of 8 feet in width on Girod street, to a wooden building which, at a small expense, could be converted into a stable.

In the yard is a large cistern holding over 2000 gallons, and a well with a copper pump.

The banquet, corridor, lower rooms of the back building and the yard, with the exception of a space reserved for a grass plat or garden, are paved with the best of York-shire flagging. The house is also furnished with bells, &c. The situation of this property in a rapidly improving part of the city, offers inducements to those who want a genteel residence in a healthy and pleasant location, within a few minutes walk from Canal street, seldom presented.

Also, a VALUABLE TRACT OF LAND, about 4 miles from the city, on the opposite side of the river, in the parish of Jefferson, containing two arpents front on the public road by 8 arpents deep, forming a rectangular parallelogram, with all the rights of batture now formed or that shall hereafter be formed; the above property is bounded on one side by the property of the late Chs F Visinier, and on the other side and in the rear by the plantation of Louis C. Delery. On the lot is a dwelling house, and on the batture a store, the latter was usually rented for $300 per annum, and the whole is now under a lease at the rate of $400 per annum till March next, and will be sold subject to said lease, but there is no doubt that 5 to $600 could be had the coming year. This property being near the Barataria road which leads to the lakes, and the short distance from the city must greatly increase in value in a short period.

Also, a TRACT OF LAND, containing 5 acres, situated at Spring Hill, near Mobile, up the public road and not far from the College—is a fine healthy situation and is worthy the attention of those who desire a pleasant retreat from the city, during the summer season.

Also, the slave Susannah, aged about 28 years, has been in the city six years, is a first rate washer, ironer and pleater, honest and sober, is subject to no incumbrance being a syndic sale, title only guaranteed.

Also, 20 Shares Merchants' Insurance Company Stock, having $20 dollars per share paid in.

Conditions: For the property opposite Lafayette Square, the purchaser must assume the payment of three notes all due on the 15th February, 1835; one for $706 25, one ditto $706 25, one ditto $706 25, and the balance at 12, 18 and 24 months credit, secured endorsed notes, secured by mortgage, and to give a sufficient guarantee for the payments assumed. For the property in the Parish of Jefferson, 6, 12 and 24 months for approved endorsed notes, and mortgage until final payment. For the lot at Spring Hill, six months credit for an approved endorsed note, and mortgage until final payment. For the slave Susannah, 6 months for an approved endorsed note and mortgage until final payment. For the Merchants' Insurance Company stock cash. Acts of sale to be passed before H. B. Canac, Esq. not. pub. at the purchasers' costs. nov 1
