FOR SALE, that fine property in the suburb St. Mary, known heretofore under the name of RILLEAUX COTTON PRESS, fronting on Tchoupitoulas, Poydras and Magazine streets. There are on the premises, capacious warehouses substantially built of bricks; and should the purchaser prefer a new distribution of said property, a vast quantity of good lumber from the present buildings could be employed in new buildings. The yards, entrances, and passage, are all paved with round stone.

The situation of this property, in the centre of the most flourishing part of the city, deserves the attention of persons making a study of localities. Placed by the steamboat landing at the point of rendezvous of all the Steam, whose interest it is to be our tributaries, it affords in that respect advantages of position rendered scarce by the increase of business, and the immense inland connections of this city. The proximity of the river, the improved state of the pavement to Poydras st. according to it in all seasons an activity denied to others by insurmountable difficulties in our municipal improvements, render this property a most eligible situation for the receiving or expedition of the vast quantity of produce coming to this city—and if entering the same branch of business does not benefit all concerned, a new destination of the premises would contribute to the improvement of this part of the city, already adorned by the splendid buildings of the Canal and Banking Company, in its immediate vicinity.

This property will be sold adjoining to a plot made by L. Bringier, which will be exposed at the Exchange on Monday the 2d of April, if not sold previously at private sale.

For further information respecting terms and delivery, apply on the premises or at Hawlett & Rauffles's auction rooms, St. Louis st. march 15
