Commercial

NEW-ORLEANS, FRIDAY, NOV. 6, 1914.

We have no extensive business to note since our review of Tuesday last. The transaction in cotton and sugar has been a pretty large, but after our previous report, we do not see any special interest in the market. The market for all commodities has been very quiet, and the receipts continue to be small.

THE BAYON STATE
The Bayon State has brought up a paper as usual. Thanks to Chatty, &c.

One CLAY REWARD. The Ohio Statesman, Inc., says the Louisiana paper cannot support John T. Clayton as a candidate for the presidency. It is a curious thing to see a paper of this kind in a paper of this kind.
