TRANSMITTED FOR THE D. O.

City Initing in.— An late hour has arrived we received the following important despatches from our correspondents at Montgomery. It will be seen that the Presidential Election is settled, and that Gen. Taylor has probably received a very large majority of the electoral votes.

FIRST DISPATCH.
PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION.

MONTGOMERY, Nov. 9th.
We have just sufficient to report to you that Gen. Taylor has secured his election at the Capital. His supporters are still here, and the news has not yet reached Montgomery. We will be able to give you more details as soon as possible.

SECOND DISPATCH.

ALABAMA.—
Montgomery, Nov. 9th.—The results of the Presidential election are now known to us. Gen. Taylor has gained 2,000 over Gen. Cass. He is the winner of the State Senate, and the House, and the State Legislature.

GEORGIA.— Atlanta, Nov. 9th.—We understand (by the Columbus Daily Citizen) that our ex-Confederate General, Gen. Wm. T. Taylor, has been invited to speak at the funeral of Gen. Wm. H. Lewis, who died on Friday last. The eight living Ex-Mayors of New York city, as well as all the members of the House, Dixie, Lewis, and others, are to be present.

NEW YORK.—
Albany, Nov. 9th.—Annual Advertiser is to be addressed to every voter in the State of New York, and to be sent to every square foot of ground in the State.

The New-Orleans Daily Bee

Friday Morning, Nov. 10, 1848.

THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION.

The Phoenix received a despatch at an early hour yesterday morning, announcing the result of the Presidential election in nearly half the States of the Union. We suppose it is safe to conclude that if its statement is at all reliable, Gen. Taylor will probably receive a very large majority of the electoral votes.

THE CLOAKERS AT ST. PETERSBURG.—
The Charleston Courier of the 4th says:—It gives us great pleasure to announce that a telegraphic communication has been established between Verdun and St. Petersburg, Russia, and that the majority of the telegrams sent by the imperial government to the various embassies of the empire, when necessary, are forwarded by this means. The Emperor's orders were circulated in Petersburg, and the telegraph will gladly welcome him to the Capital.
