A bill is now before the Legislature which has been introduced in the House by Mr. Pauline, and which contemplates adding another to our burdensome and excessive tax system. The bill provides for providing funds for the erection of a State House upon the former property of the State, which was sold by the late Governor. The bill is an enormous project to the purchase of the property.

HOUSE REPORTS.

While we deplore for manifold reasons any action of the Committee of Fifty-one or its successors, which would tend to create a constitutional crisis, we do not believe that it is necessary to the success of the reform movement to have the aid of the Executive power. The bill is an enormous project to the purchase of the property.
