The Texas Legislature is still in session, but has accomplished nothing of moment. Three or our bills have been introduced relative to the ethement of the Public Debt. They all assume his amendment was lost, and the second branche ame up, doctaing that he this welcom to Koscath. Congress did not intend to intima settlement of the Public Debt. They all assume the scaling principle as the basis of liquidation. We learn from the San Antonio. Ledger, that General Smith had returned from that place, after having visited in person all the frontier posts. During his tour he visited and explored the frontier one hundred and fifty miles in advance of the procent military posts, with a view of ascertaining by personal inspection, the best and most cligible line to be adopted as a personal most eligible line to be adopted as a personal inspection. The Congress, in the hand of the people of the United States, give moment military defence. Since his departure and most clirible line to be adopted as a per-manent military defence. Since his departure from this place, which was a few days after his first arrival, he has travelled more than twelve-hundred miles in performing this service. He will report the result of his observations to the

of the country.

It was finally passed, and the Senate a journed over to Monday.

The Republic and National Intelligencer both this morning have lengthy editorials relative to Kossuth, cautioning the people to beware of the War Department, and wait further instruction from that source, when a permanent line of fron tier posts will be established.
