VIRGINIA REFORM ELECTION.—We have rec-ved returns from several counties in Virginia, of the election for delegaces to the Reform Convention, the details of which it is hardly necessary to publish. The Reformers seemed to have generally succeeded over both AntiReformers and Conservatives.

Case of Lactation in a Maise—By C. W. Horner, M. D., of Philadelphia — Dear Sir According to your request, I send the particulars of the case of incisation in am adult snale it occurred in the person of an atheric American named Charles Collins, aged 22 years, a blackwanth, working at his trade in New York About the 10th of February last, his attention was first drawn to his left beast, which appeared to be cultarged, and continued to increase it size for three weeks, when he came to Philadel phia. After being in this city for three week he became quite anxious in recard to his condition, for, aithough he suffered very little pain the manma had become quite an large as the of a lemale norming. He, therefore, through the persuation of an min, was, on the 23d of March, induced to apply at the Clinic of the Jefferson Medical College, to consult the faculty of that institution. His case came up before Professor Mutter, who, upon examination found the mammary gland targety developed and filled with the lacted secretion, which differed in no wise from that of a mother. If
