The New-Orleans Bee.

No. 670. VOL. VIII.—NEW SERIES.
VOL. XXI.—WHOLE No. 3769.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF GENERAL COUNCIL AND FIRST MUNICIPALITY.——NEW-ORLEANS, MONDAY MORNING, AUGUST 21, 1848.

MAGNE & WEISS, PROPRIETORS,
No. 62 Chartres, and 12 Camp in Rear.

TERMS OF THE BEE.

DAILY PAPER, one year in advance)..... $12 00
COUNTRY PAPER, Semi-weekly, one year in advance.....
No paper to the subscriber must give one week's notice before he can be allowed to discontinue.
ADVERTISEMENTS, for every TEN lines, or less than a square, on the first insertion, and FIFTY cents for each subsequent one. No Advertisement inserted for less than one dollar in each case.
Where numbers not specified as to time will be inserted until forbid, and charged accordingly.
Advertisements inserted at intervals will be charged one dollar for every TEN lines, for each language used for each insertion.
☞ The privilege of Annual Advertisers is confined to their business strictly within the line of their profession, and to extend to one square every other day.

The New-Orleans Daily Bee.

WHIG NOMINATIONS.

FOR PRESIDENT,

ZACHARY TAYLOR,

OF LOUISIANA.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,

MILLARD FILLMORE,

OF NEW YORK.

ELECTORAL TICKET.

First District.....JACQUES TOUTANT.
Second District.....J. P. BENJAMIN.
Third District.....FRANCIS J. GARCIA
Fourth District.....C. ADAMS, Jr.
At Large.....JOHN MOORE.
.....JAS. G. CAMPBELL.

WHIG WATCH-WORD—WE CANNOT BE BOUGHT.—General Taylor.

"I WILL NOT CONSENT, NOW AND NEVER, THAT CONGRESS SHALL EVER PART WITH OR INTERFERE IN THE SLIGHTEST DEGREE WITH WHAT IS TERMED THE PECULIAR INSTITUTION OF THE SOUTHERN STATES."—Van Buren Editorial.

Monday Morning, Aug 21, 1848.

Another Hoorbuck Exploded.

The Locofoco papers of Tennessee are perfectly frantic at their business to Gen. Zach Taylor, and are determined to run candid, however much over-run. The Memphis Appeal, a most splendid specimen of the genus Locofocus, now has charged Gen. Taylor first, with having caused a volunteer to be hung, simply for using offensive language against his Captain, and last, with having secreted at the volunteers as being "worth their rations". A gentleman of Memphis, personally acquainted with Gen. Taylor, transmitted to him a slip containing these foul calumnies, and requested a denial or reply. Gen. T. immediately complied with the request, and in the subjoined letter refers the slanderer, and secretes their authors with a severity which shows that the old Hero's anger is not easily roused by these mean, despicable and utterly groundless lies. It is just such a letter as the occasion warranted and such a one as shocked the calumniators to tatters and shame, unless they have lost the capacity of blushing.

BATON ROUGE, La. Aug. 5, 1848.

My Dear Sir—Your esteemed letter of the 2d inst., enclosing a slip cut from the "Memphis Appeal," was this moment received, containing the most infamous falsehoods in relation to myself and the volunteers under my command, especially in the statements that I had caused a volunteer to be hung, simply for using offensive language against his Captain, and that I had secreted the volunteers as being worth their rations". A gentleman of Memphis, personally acquainted with Gen. Taylor, transmitted to him a slip containing these foul calumnies, and requested a denial or reply. Gen. T. immediately complied with the request, and in the subjoined letter refers the slanderer, and secretes their authors with a severity which shows that the old Hero's anger is not easily roused by these mean, despicable and utterly groundless lies. It is just such a letter as the occasion warranted and such a one as shocked the calumniators to tatters and shame, unless they have lost the capacity of blushing.

BATON ROUGE, La. Aug. 5, 1848.

My Dear Sir—Your esteemed letter of the 2d inst., enclosing a slip cut from the "Memphis Appeal," was this moment received, containing the most infamous falsehoods in relation to myself and the volunteers under my command, especially in the statements that I had caused a volunteer to be hung, simply for using offensive language against his Captain, and last, with having secreted at the volunteers as being "