2. (FOUO) Detention Information: Subject detainee worked for the Intelligence Department as an Intelligence Commander for 3 months prior to his arrest; his duties included guarding repossessed items taken from the Afghan government during the Taliban regime for return under the current Karzai presidency. Each person who worked for the Intelligence Department in Khost had an AK-47 and the group had an RPG-7 and a 7.62mm RPD with feed. Pacha Khan controlled the majority of the repossessed weapons and ammunition. Full nomenclature and quantities of items possessed and controlled by Pacha Khan is unknown. Detainee resided in Khost with five brothers, his mother, his wife, and his son. Detainee and the four individuals were detained in Bagh Sahra, the Sardar Headquarters, for one night and one day. US Forces came the second night by helicopter, took control of the detainees and transferred the five persons to Bagram, AF. Detainee was subsequently transported to Guantanamo Bay Naval Base, Cuba on 9 April 2002 because of his knowledge of the Intelligence department in Afghanistan and Sardar, an Afghan warlord.
